A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twentieth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contempt and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twentieth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, this Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twentieth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contempt and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, this Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Twenty-first Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contempt and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: Our Will is, therefore, and We charge, That this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith proceed to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance: And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We do appoint them to send Copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, and that, upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, this Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

SIR,
HAVING delivered the Dispatches, you did me the Honor to entrust for Admiral Dacres, on board the Surveillante, obedient to your Orders I proceeded off Curacoa, and having made the N.W. End of the Island of Bonaire, on the 30th September, I fell in with a French Lugger, which, after a Chase of Two Hours, run on Shore; I immediately dispatched the Boats, under the Command of Lieutenant Jones, who has much credit in his Exertions, in bringing her off with little Damage.—She proves to be the Hazard, commanded by Citizen Lambart, pierced for 16 Guns, but only Ten 4-Pounders mounted, and 50 Men, a new Vessel and sails fast; out of Gaudaloupe Ten Days, and had only made one Capture of the Brig Hawk from Trinidad in Ballast, the Master of which I have retaken, with Two of her Crew, and have given him Charge of the Lugger, to conduct her to Jamaica.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR,
I BEG leave to acquaint you, at Two this Morning I captured La Gracieuse French Schooner, pierced and equipped for 14 Guns, and had on board 55 Men from St. Jago de Cuba, to St. Domingo, with Troops and Dispatches, which I was fortunate enough to save.

His Majesty's Schooner La Supérieure, off Monto Christi, Oct. 22, 1804.

SIR,
I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that His Majesty's Schooner under my Command fell in with this Day, and, after a Chase of Four Hours, captured Le Chasseur French Privateer, of Five Guns and Sixty six Men, Pilot-boat built; had been out only Three Days, and had not taken any Thing.

She has just had a thorough Refit at Jago, and is one of the fastest sailing Cruizers out of Guadalupe, from whence she is commissioned. They defended her from a long Twelve-pounder as we came up, and succeeded in cutting away One Square-sail Yard, Lower Studdensails, slightly wounded the Foremast and Fore-Yard, and in cutting our Sails and Running Rigging. The Enemy had Five wounded, One of which is since dead.

I have, &c. &c. &c.

Lieut. commanding.

To Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B.
Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Westminster, January 15, 1805.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers: The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

SINCE the End of the last Session, the Preparations of the Enemy for the Invasion of this Kingdom have been continued with incessant Activity; but no Attempt has been made to carry their repeated Menaces into Effect.

The Skill and Intrepidity of My Navy, the respectable and formidable State of My Army and Militia, the unabated Zeal and improved Discipline of a numerous Volunteer Force, and the general Ardor manifested by all Classes of My Subjects, have, indeed, been sufficient to deter them from so presumptuous and desperate an Enterprize. While this Spirit continues to animate the Country, and its voluntary Exertions for its own Defence subsist in their full Vigour, We need not fear the Consequences of the most powerful Efforts on the Part of the Enemy: But let us never forget that our Security has arisen from the Resolution with which we have met and provided against the Danger, and that it can be preserved only by steady Perseverance and unremitting Activity.

The Conduct of the Court of Spain, evidently under the predominant Influence and Controul of France, compelled Me to take prompt and decisive Measures to guard against the Effects of Hostility. I have, at the same Time, endeavoured, as long as it was possible, to prevent the Necessity of a Rupture; but, in consequence of the Refusal of a satisfactory Explanation, My Minister quitted Madrid, and War has since been declared by Spain against this Country.

I have directed a Copy of the Manifesto, which I have caused to be prepared on this Occasion, to be laid before you, together with such Papers as are necessary to explain the Discussions which have taken place between Me and the Court of Madrid. You will, I trust, be convinced by them, that My Forbearance has been carried to the utmost Extent which the Interests of My Dominions would admit; and, while I lament the Situation of Spain, involved in Hostilities contrary to its true Interests, I rely with Confidence on your vigorous Support in a Contest which can be attributed only to the unfortunate Prevalence of French Counsels.

The general Conduct of the French Government on the Continent of Europe, has been marked by the utmost Violence and Outrage, and has shewn a wanton Defiance of the Rights of Neutral Territories; of the acknowledged Privileges of accredited Ministers, and of the established Principles of the Law of Nations.

Notwithstanding these Transactions, so repugnant to every Sentiment of Moderation and Justice, I have recently received a Communication from the French Government, containing Professions of a pacific Disposition. I have, in consequence, expressed My earnest Desire to embrace the first Opportunity of restoring the Blessings of Peace on such Grounds as may be consistent with the permanent Safety and Interests of My Dominions; but I am confident you will agree with Me, that those Objects are closely connected with the general Security of Europe; I have, therefore, not thought it right to enter into any more particular Explanation without previous Communication with those Powers on the Continent, with whom I am engaged in confidential Intercourse and Connection, with a View to that important Object, and especially with the Emperor of Russia, who has given the strongest Proofs of the wise and dignified Sentiments by which he is animated, and of the warm Interest he takes in the Safety and Independence of Europe.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed the Estimates for the public Service to be laid before you. I regret the Necessity of any additional Burdens being imposed on My People; but I am sure you will be sensible how much their future Safety and Happiness depend on the Vigour of our Exertions, and that in the Mode of raising the Supplies you will continue to shew your Anxiety for the Support of public Credit, and for restraining as much as possible the Accumulation of the National Debt.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

In considering the great Efforts and Sacrifices which the Nature of the Contest requires, it is a peculiar Satisfaction to Me to observe the many Proofs of the internal Wealth and Prosperity of the Country. It will, I am sure, be your great Object to maintain and improve these Advantages, and at the same Time to take all such Measures, as by enabling Me to prosecute the War with Vigour, may afford the best Prospect of bringing it to a safe and honourable Termination.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 14th of January 1805,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Honorable Henry Viscount Sidmouth, Lord President of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, in the Room of His Grace William Henry Cavendish Duke of Portland, whom His Majesty has been graciously pleased to permit to retire from the said Office, on Account of Health; and Lord Viscount Sidmouth took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased to deliver the Custody of the Seals of the Dutchy and County-Palatine of Lancatter to the Right Honorable Robert Earl of Buckinghamshire, the Oath of Chancellor of the said Dutchy was this Day, by His Majesty's Command, administered to his Lordship.

This Day the Right Honorable John Hookham Frere, the Right Honorable Nicholas Vansittart, the Right Honorable Reginald Pole Carew, and the Right Honorable John Sullivan, were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 11th of January 1805,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has received Information that the King of Spain has issued a Declaration of War against His Majesty, His Subjects, and People; His Majesty, therefore, being determined to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honor of His Crown, and for the vigorous Prosecution of the War in which He finds himself engaged, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well His Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the King of Spain, or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within the Territories of the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions; and, to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to Spain, and the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or any inhabiting within His Countries, Territories, or Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission, as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draft of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same; and, according to the Course of Admiralty, and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods as shall belong to Spain, or the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or to any others inhabiting within any of his Countries, Territories, and Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty at this Board a Draft of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draft of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes afore mentioned.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Twentieth Day of February next ensuing, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on our Arms for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, this Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

St. James's, Thursday, January 17, 1805.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this Day, the Knights Companions, in their Mantles and Collars, with the Officers of the Order hereafter-mentioned, in their Mantles, Chains, and Badges, attended the Sovereign in his own Apartment; and being called over by Garter Principal King of Arms, a Procession was made from thence to the Great Council-Chamber in the following Order:

Earl Camden.

Earl Spencer.

Earl of Carlisle.

Earl of Westmoreland.

Earl of Chatham.

Marquis Cornwallis.

Prince William Frederick.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland. His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

Garter. The Register.

The Prelate.

The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Register, in the Absence of the Chancellor, read a new Statute, by which it is ordained, that the said Order shall henceforth consist of the Sovereign and Twenty-five Knights Companions, together with such lineal Descendants of the late Sovereign, King George the Second, as shall have been elected, and may hereafter be elected, into the same, always excepting the Prince of Wales, who is a constituent Part of the original Institution.

The Register then signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's Pleasure for filling up the vacant Stalls in St. George's Chapel at Windsor; and as, by the Statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, Garter was commanded to introduce the Duke of Beaufort, who was knighted by the Sovereign with the Sword of State: The Marquis of Abercorn, the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, the Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and the Earl of Chesterfield, were thereupon successively introduced, and knighted with the like Ceremonies.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the Election; and the Suffrages being collected by the Register, and presented to the Sovereign, Henry Charles Duke of Beaufort was, by His Majesty's Command, declared duly elected. His Grace was thereupon received at the Door of the Chapter-Room by the Two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to the Sovereign, preceded by Garter bearing the Ensigns of the Order on a Cushion.

Garter presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty, assisted by the Two senior Knights Companions, buckled it on His Grace's Left Leg, the Register pronouncing the Admonition.

Garter then presented the Ribband with the George to the Sovereign; and, his Grace kneeling, the Sovereign, with the Assistance of the said Two senior Knights Companions, put it over His Grace's Shoulder, the Register, in the mean Time, pronouncing the Admonition; and His Grace having kissed His Majesty's Hand, and saluted the Knights present, withdrew.

After which John James Marquis of Abercorn, George Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, George Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and Philip Earl of Chesterfield were severally elected, and invested with the like Ceremonies.

The Chapter ended, Garter called over the Knights, and a Procession was made back to His Majesty's Apartment in the Order as before.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Ardent, off Ramsgate, the 21st Instant.

S I R,

I TRANSMIT, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Elphinstone, of His Majesty's Ship the Greyhound, to Captain Laroche, of the Melpomene, reporting the Capture of another of the Enemy's Privateers that have lately infested the Channel; and from which their Lordships will have the Satisfaction of observing, that Mr. Dalyell, acting Lieutenant of the Rattler, and Mr. Donaldson, the late acting Commander of the Folkestone, are alive, and likely to recover.

I am, &c. KEITH.

S I R, Greyhound, at Sea, Jan. 19, 1805.

CRUISING in Conformity to your Orders, I Yesterday fell in with, and, after an Eleven Hours' Chace, captured the French Lugger Privateer Le Vimereux, Jan B. Pollet, Captain, armed with Fifteen Guns, and having on board a Complement of Sixty-nine Men. She sailed from St. Vallery en Caux (to which Port she belonged) on Thursday, and had taken nothing. She is a remarkable fine Vessel, about Sixty Tons Burthen, nearly new, and sails so well, that had we not been greatly favoured by frequent Changes of Wind, I believe all our Efforts in pursuit of her would have been fruitless.

It was against this Lugger that the gallant, although unfortunate, Attempt was made by the Boats of His Majesty's Sloop Rattler and Folkestone Lugger; and it is with great Satisfaction I learnt, that the Lieutenants of the Rattler and Folkestone were still living, and, although severely wounded, that there is very great Expectation of their Recovery.

I remain, &c.

(Signed) C. ELPHINSTONE.

DECLARATION.

FROM the Moment that Hostilities had commenced between Great Britain and France, a sufficient Ground of War against Spain, on the Part of Great Britain, necessarily followed from the Treaty of St. Ildephonso, if not disclaimed by Spain.

That Treaty in fact identified Spain with the Republican Government of France, by a virtual Acknowledgment of unqualified Vassalage, and by specific Stipulations of unconditional Offence.

By the Articles of that Treaty Spain covenanted to furnish a stated Contingent of Naval and Military Force for the Prosecution of any War in which the French Republic might think proper to engage. She specifically surrendered any Right or Pretension to enquire into the Nature, Origin, or Justice of that War. She stipulated, in the first Instance, a Contingent of Troops and Ships, which, of itself, comprised no moderate Proportion of the Means at her Disposal; but in the Event of this Contingent being at any Time found insufficient for the Purposes of France, she further bound herself to put into a State of Activity the utmost Force, both by Sea and Land, that it should be in her Power to collect. She covenanted that this Force should be at the Disposal of France, to be employed conjointly or separately for the Annoyance of the common Enemy; thus submitting her entire Power and Resources to be used as the Instruments of French Ambition and Aggression, and to be applied in whatever Proportion France might think proper, for the avowed Purpose of endeavouring to subvert the Government and destroy the National Existence of Great Britain.

The Character of such a Treaty gave Great Britain an incontestible Right to declare to Spain, That unless she decidedly renounced the Treaty, or gave Assurances that she would not perform the Obligations of it, she would not be considered as a neutral Power.

This Right, however, for prudential Reasons, and from Motives of Forbearance and Tenderness towards Spain, was not exercised in its full Extent; and, in consequence of Assurances of a pacific Disposition on the Part of the Spanish Government, His Majesty did not, in the first Instance, insist on a distinct and formal Renunciation of the Treaty. It does not appear that any express Demand of Succour had been made by France before the Month of July One thousand eight hundred and three; and on the first Notification of the War, His Majesty's Minister at Madrid was led to believe, in consequence of Communications which passed between him and the Spanish Government, that His Catholic Majesty did not consider Himself as necessarily bound by the mere Fact of the Existence of a War between Great Britain and France, without subsequent Explanation and Discussion, to fulfil the Stipulations of the Treaty of St. Ildephonso, though the Articles of that Treaty would certainly give rise to a very different Interpretation. In the Month of October a Convention was signed, by which Spain agreed to pay to France a certain Sum Monthly in lieu of the Naval and Military Succours which they had stipulated by the Treaty to provide, but of the Amount of this Sum, or of the Nature of any other Stipulations which that Convention might contain, no official Information whatever was given.

It was immediately stated by His Majesty's Minister at Madrid to the Spanish Government, that a Subsidy as large as that which they were supposed to have engaged to pay to France, far exceeded the Bounds of Forbearance; that it could only meet with a temporary Connivance, as if it was continued, it might prove in fact a greater Injury than any other Hostility. In reply to these Remonstrances, it was represented as an expedient to gain Time, and Assurances were given which were confirmed by Circumstances, which came to His Majesty's Knowledge from other Quarters, that the Disposition of the Spanish Government would induce them to extricate themselves from this Engagement, if the Course of Events should admit of their doing so with Safety.

When His Majesty had first Reason to believe that such a Convention was concluded, He directed His Minister at Madrid to declare that His forbearing to consider Spain as an Enemy must depend in some Degree upon the Amount of the Succours, and upon her maintaining a perfect Neutrality in all other Respects; but that it would be impossible for him to consider a permanent Payment, to the Amount of that which was stated to have been in Agitation, in any other Light than as a direct Subsidy of War. His Majesty's Envoy was directed, therefore, first to protest against the Convention, as a Violation of Neutrality, and a justifiable Cause of War; secondly, to declare, that our abstaining from Hostilities must depend upon its being only a temporary Measure, and that we must be at liberty to consider a Perseverance in it as a Cause of War; thirdly, that the Entrance of any French Troops into Spain must be refused; fourthly, that any Naval Preparation must be a great Cause of Jealousy, and any Attempt to give Naval Assistance to France an immediate Cause of War; fifthly, that the Spanish Ports must remain open to our Commerce, and that our Ships of War must have equal Treatment with those of France. His Majesty's Minister was also instructed, if any French Troops entered Spain, or if he received authentic Information of any Naval Armaments preparing for the Assistance of France, to leave Madrid, and to give immediate Notice to our Naval Commanders, that they might proceed to Hostilities without the Delay that might be occasioned by a Reference Home.

The Execution of these Instructions produced a Variety of Discussions; during which His Majesty's Minister told Mr. Cevallos, in answer to his Question, Whether a Continuance of such pecuniary Succours to France would be considered as a Ground of War, and whether he was authorized to declare it? that he was so authorized, and that War would be the infallible Consequence.

It was, however, still thought desirable by His Majesty to protract, if possible, the Decision of this Question; and it was therefore stated in the Instructions to His Minister at Madrid, that as the Subsidy was represented by the Spanish Government to be merely a temporary Measure, His Majesty might still continue to overlook it for a Time; but that His Decision in this Respect must depend upon knowing the precise Nature of all the Stipulations between Spain and France, and upon the Spanish Government being determined to cause their Neutrality to be respected in all other Particulars. That until these Questions were answered in a satisfactory Manner, and the Convention communicated to Him, He could give no positive Answer whether He would make the pecuniary Succours a Cause of War or not.

Before the Receipt of these Instructions, dated January 21, 1804, the Report of some Naval Arnaments in the Ports of Spain had occasioned a fresh Correspondence between His Majesty's Minister and the Spanish Government. In one of the Notes presented by the former, he declares, that if the King was forced to begin a War, he would want no other Declaration than what he had already made. The Answers of the Spanish Government were at first of an evasive Nature; His Majesty's Minister closed the Correspondence on his Part by a Note delivered on the Eighteenth of February, in which he declares that all further Forbearance on the Part of England must depend upon the Cessation of all Naval Armaments, and a Prohibition of the Sale of Prizes in their Ports: and unless these Points were agreed to without Modification, he had Orders to leave Madrid. On the Second of these Points a satisfactory Answer was given, and Orders issued accordingly; on the First, a Reference was made to former Declarations. To the Question about disclosing the Treaty with France no satisfactory Answer was ever given. As however no Naval Preparations appeared to be proceeding at that Period in the Ports of Spain, the Matter was allowed to remain there for a Time.

In the Month of July One thousand eight hundred and four, the Government of Spain gave Assurances of faithful and settled Neutrality, and disavowed any Orders to arm in their Ports; yet, in the subsequent Month, when these Assurances were recent, and a confident Reliance reposed in them, the British Chargé d'Affaires received Advices from the Admiral commanding His Majesty's Ships off the Port of Ferrol, that Reinforcements of Soldiers and Sailors had arrived through Spain for the French Fleets at Toulon and Ferrol. On this Intelligence Two Notes were presented to the Spanish Ministers, but no Answer was received to either of them. Towards the End of the Month of September, Information was received in London from the British Admiral stationed off Ferrol, that Orders had actually been given, by the Court of Madrid, for arming, without Loss of Time, at that Port, Four Ships of the Line, Two Frigates, and other smaller Vessels; that (according to his Intelligence) similar Orders had been given at Carthagen and Cadiz, and particularly that Three First Rate Ships of the Line were directed to sail from the last mentioned Port; and, as an additional Proof of hostile Intentions, that Orders had been given to arm the Pacquets as in Time of War.

Here then appeared a direct and unequivocal Violation of the Terms on which the Continuance of Peace had been acquiesced in; previous Notice having been given to the Spanish Government, that a State of War would be the immediate Consequence of such a Measure, His Majesty on this Event stood almost pledged to an instant Commencement of Hostilities; the King, however, preferred a persevering Adherence to the System of Moderation so congenial to His Disposition: He resolved to leave still an Opening for Accommodation, if Spain should be still allowed the Liberty to adopt the Course prescribed by a just Sense of her own Interests and Security. It is here worthy of Remark, that the groundless and ungrateful Imputations thrown out against His Majesty's Conduct in the Spanish Manifesto are built upon the Foundation of this Forbearance alone. Had His Majesty exercised, without Reserve, His just Rights of War, the Representations so falsely asserted, and so indiduously dwelt upon, could not have been even stated under any colourable Pretext: The Indulgence, therefore, which postponed the actual State of War, was not only misrepresented, but transformed into a Ground of Complaint, because the Forbearance extended to the Aggressors was not carried to a dangerous and inadmissible Extreme. In consequence of the Intelligence above stated, Directions were sent to His Majesty's Minister at Madrid to make Representations and Remonstrances to the Spanish Court, to demand Explanations relative to the existing Conventions between Spain and France; and, above all, to insist, that the Naval Armaments in their Ports should be placed on the same Footing as they were previously to the Commencement of Hostilities between Great Britain and France: And he was further directed, explicitly to state to the Spanish Government, that His Majesty felt a Duty imposed upon Him of taking, without Delay, every Measure of Precaution; and, particularly, of giving Orders to His Admiral off the Port of Ferrol to prevent any of the Spanish Ships of War sailing from that Port, or any additional Ships of War from entering it.

No substantial Redress, no satisfactory Explanation, was afforded in consequence of these repeated Representations; whilst, under the Cover of His Majesty's Forbearance, the Enemy had received considerable Remittances of Treasure, together with the Facility of procuring other Supplies.

Every Circumstance of the general Conduct of Spain was peculiarly calculated to excite the vigilant Attention of the British Government—the Removal of Spanish Ships out of their Docks, to make Room for the Accommodation of the Men of War of France—the March of French Troops and Seamen through the Spanish Territory—the Equipment of Naval Armaments at Ferrol—the Consideration that the Junction of this Armament with the French Ships already in that Harbour would create a decided Superiority of Numbers over His Majesty's Squadron cruising off that Port—the additional Naval Exertions, and the consequent Increase of Expence which this Conduct of Spain necessarily imposed upon Great Britain. All these together required those Precautions, both of Representation and Action, to which His Majesty had immediate Recourse. While official Notice was given of His Majesty's Intention to adopt those necessary Measures, the Spanish Government was, at the same Time, assured that His Majesty still felt an earnest Desire to maintain a good Understanding with Spain; but that the Continuance of such a State of Things must be subject to the Condition of abstaining, on their Part, from all hostile Preparations, and on making, without Hesitation or Reserve, that full and explicit Disclosure of the Nature and Extent of the subsisting Engagements with France, which had hitherto been so frequently and so fruitlessly demanded.

The Precautions adopted by His Majesty were such only as He deemed indispensably necessary to guard against the Augmentation by Spain of her Means of Naval Preparation during the Discussion, and against the possible Consequences of the safe Arrival of the expected American Treasure in the Spanish Ports; an Event which has more than once, in former Times, become the Epoch of the Termination of Discussions, and of the Commencement of Hostility on the Part of Spain.

The Orders issued by His Majesty on this Occasion to the Admirals commanding His Fleets, afford the most striking Example of a scrupulous and indulgent Forbearance; the most strict Limitation was given, as to the Extent and Object of the Measures proposed; and the Execution of those Orders was guarded with the strongest Injunctions to avoid, by every Means consistent with the Attainment of their Object, any Act of Violence or Hostility against the Dominions or Subjects of His Catholic Majesty. The hostile Preparations in the Harbour of Ferrol rendered it necessary, in the first Instance, that a Reinforcement should be added to the Squadron cruising off that Port; and Orders were at the same Time conveyed to the British Admirals, to send Intimation to the Spanish Government of the Instructions they had received, and of their Determination, in consequence, to resist, under the present Circumstances, the sailing either of the French or Spanish Fleets, if any Attempt for that Purpose should be made by either of them.

His Majesty's Pleasure was at the same Time signified, that they were not to detain, in the first Instance, any Ship belonging to His Catholic Majesty, sailing from a Port of Spain; but to require the Commander of such Ship to return directly to the Port from whence she came; and only, in the Event of his refusing to comply with such Requisition, to detain and send her to Gibraltar or to England.

Further Directions were given not to detain any Spanish homeward bound Ships of War, unless they should have Treasure on board, nor Merchant Ships of that Nation, however laden, on any Account whatsoever. That, in the Prosecution of those Measures of Precaution, many valuable Lives should have been sacrificed, is a Subject of much Regret to His Majesty, who laments it as an Event produced, alone by an unhappy Concurrence of Circumstances, but which can in no Degree affect the Merits of the Case. The Question of the just Principle and due Exercise of His Majesty's Right rests upon every Foundation of the Laws of Nature and of Nations, which enjoin and justify the Adoption of such Measures as are requisite for Defence, and the Prevention of Aggression.

It remains only further to observe, that if any additional Proof were requisite of the Wisdom and Necessity of precautionary Measures, that Proof would be found even in the Declaration relied upon in the Manifesto of Spain, in which its Government now states itself to have contemplated, from the Beginning of the War, the Necessity of making itself a Party to it, in Support of the Pretensions of France, expressly declaring, that "Spain and Holland, who treated conjointly with France at Amiens, and whose Interests and political Relations were so closely connected with her, must have with Difficulty refrained from taking Part against the Injuries and Insults offered to their Ally."

It will further appear, by a Reference to the Dates and Results of the several Representations made by His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at the Court of Spain, that the Detention of the Spanish Treasure Ships never was in question during the Discussions which preceded his Departure from Madrid. That Ground of Complaint therefore, which has since been so much relied upon, formed no Part of the Motive of the previous hostile Character so strongly manifested by the Spanish Court in their Mode of treating the Points in Discussion, nor (as will appear in the Sequel) of the final Rupture of the Negotiation at Madrid.

On the Twenty-sixth of October, One thousand eight hundred and four, His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires presented a Note to the Spanish Minister, in which the following Conditions were insisted upon as preliminary to the Appointment of a Minister from Great Britain, who might treat of the Adjustment of other Matters which remained for Discussion. The Conditions were Three: First, that the Orders given at Ferrol, Cadiz, and Carthagena should be countermanded, as well for the Equipment of Ships of War in any of those Ports, as for their Removal from one of those Ports to another. Secondly, that not only the present Armaments should be discontinued, but that the Establishment of Ships of War in the different Ports should be replaced on the Footing on which they stood at the Commencement of Hostilities between England and France. Thirdly, that a full Disclosure should be made of the existing Engagements, and of the future Intentions of Spain with respect to France. From the Period above-mentioned to the Second of November, several official Notes passed between His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and the Spanish Minister, consisting, with little Variation in their Tenor, of urgent Demands of Satisfaction on the one Side, and of evasive and unsatisfactory Replies on the other. After repeated Delays and reiterated Applications, His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires received his Passports on the Seventh of November, and departed from Madrid on the Fourteenth of that Month. During the Whole of this Negotiation no Mention was made of the Detention of the Spanish Treasure Ships, nor does it any where appear that an Account had been received at Madrid of that Transaction. It is evident therefore, notwithstanding the Attempt made by the Spanish Court to avail itself of that Event, in the Manifesto which has been since published, that the State of War must equally have arisen between Great Britain and Spain, had the Detention never taken place, and that, in point of Fact, the Rupture ultimately took place upon Grounds distinct from, and totally unconnected with, that Measure.

The leading Circumstances which characterise the reiterated Abuse of His Majesty's Moderation, were each of them of a Nature to have exhausted any less settled System of Lenity and Forbearance. Succours afforded to His Enemies; Explanations refused or evaded after repeated Demands; Conditions violated, after distinct Notice that on them depended the Continuance of Peace. Such has been the Conduct of the Spanish Court; and it is, under these Circumstances, that His Majesty finds the domineering Influence of France exerted, and the Spanish Nation in a State of declared and open War.

His Majesty appeals with Confidence to all Europe for the Acknowledgment of His exemplary Moderation in the whole Course of these Transactions. His Majesty feels with Regret the Necessity which places Him in a State of Hostility with Spain; and would with heartfelt Satisfaction observe, on the Part of that Country, the Assumption of a more dignified Sense of National Importance, and a more independent Exercise of Sovereign Rights.

His Majesty would indeed be most happy to discover in the Councils of Spain a reviving Sense of those ancient Feelings and honorable Propensities which have at all Times been so congenial to the Spanish Character, and which, in better Times, have marked the Conduct of its Government. His Majesty will, on His Part, eagerly embrace the first Opportunity, thus offered, of resuming a State of Peace and Confidence with a Nation which has so many Ties of common Interest to connect it with Great Britain, and which He has hitherto been ever disposed to regard with Sentiments of the utmost Consideration and Esteem.

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes during the present Hostilities.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Seventeenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics; And whereas by Our Order in Council, of the Eleventh Day of this instant January, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, or any Persons being Subjects of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within Our Dominions, duly authorised and required to take Cognizance thereof; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods during these Hostilities, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice and Consent of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to our further Pleasure, and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) but subject to the Payment of all such, or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say,

That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprisals (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners aforesaid), may be sold and disposed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others, to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprisals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before:

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the Neat Produce of all Prizes which are or shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjunct Expedition with Our Army, in which Case We reserve to Ourselves the Division and Distribution of all Prize and Booty taken; and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag-Officers, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board Our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows:—The Whole of the Neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts,

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are hereinafter-mentioned:

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which shall hereafter be taken by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them; provided such Physician be actually on board at the Time of Taking such Prizes. The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces; Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Second Masters of Line of Battle Ships, Boatswains, Gunners, Purfers, Carpenters, Master's-Mates, Chirurgeons, Pilots, and Chaplains, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:—The Midshipmen, Captains' Clerks, Master, Sailmakers, Carpenters' Mates, Boatswains' Mates, Gunners' Mates, Masters at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswains, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters' Mates, Chirurgeons' Mates, Yeomen of the Powder Room, Serjeants of Marines and Land Forces, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:—The Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenters' Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourers, Stewards' Mates, Cook's Mates, Gunsmiths, Coopers, Swabbers, Ordinary Trumpeters, Barbers, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty, and assisting on board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them:—

And We do hereby further order, that, in the Case of Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, and other Armed Vessels, commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag-Officer or Officers, in which Case the Flag-Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided amongst such Flag-Officer or Officers in the same Manner herein-directed in the Case of Captains serving under Flag-Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Sub-Lieutenant, Master, and Pilot, shall be One Eighth; the said Eighth, if there be all Three such Persons on board, to be divided into Four Parts, Two Parts to be taken by the Sub-Lieutenant, One Part by the Master, and One Part by the Pilot; if there be only Two such Persons on board, then the Eighth to be divided into Three Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Person Second in Command, and One Third to the other Person, if there be only a Sub-Lieutenant, or a Master, and no Pilot, then the Sub-Lieutenant or Master to take the whole Eighth:—That the Share of the Chirurgeon, or Chirurgeon's-Mate, (where there is no Chirurgeon,) Midshipmen, Clerk, and Steward, shall be One Eighth:—That the Share of the Boatswain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's-Mates, Yeoman of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's-Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts.

But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, That the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, Brig, or Armed Vessel, without any of Our Ships or Vessels of War being present, or within Sight of and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy; but in case any of Our Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men, on board such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, or Armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportions as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on board of Our Ships and Vessels of War; the Sub-Lieutenant and Master to be considered as Warrant Officers; and such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, or Armed Vessels shall not, in respect to such Captures, convey any Interest or Share in the Flag Eighth to the Flag-Officer or Officers under whose Orders such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, and Armed Vessels may happen to be; and We further order, that the Directions herein given with respect to the Shares of the Sub-Lieutenants, Masters, and Pilots on board Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, be applied to Captures made from France and the Batavian Republic:

And whereas it is judged expedient, during the present Hostilities, to hire into Our Service Armed Vessels, to be employed as Cruizers against the Enemy, which Vessels are the Property of, and their Masters and Crews are paid by, the Merchants of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by Our Commissioned Officers, in Our Pay, it is Our further Will and Pleasure, that the

Neat Produce of all Prizes taken by such Hired Armed Vessels (except as hereinafter-mentioned) shall be for the Benefit of Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Masters and Crews on board the said Hired Armed Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise; the Distribution whereof shall be as follows:

The Whole of the Neat Produce being divided into Eight equal Parts, Our Officer commanding any Hired Armed Vessel, who shall be actually on board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighths; but in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag-Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing or assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag-Officers, in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are hereinafter-mentioned: In case there be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessels, besides Our Officer commanding the same, One or more of Our Commissioned Sea-Lieutenants in Our Pay, such Lieutenant or Lieutenants shall take One Eighth. One Eighth shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third; but in case there shall be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel One or more Midshipmen, or other Person in Our Pay, of those who are classed with Midshipmen in the former Part of this Our Proclamation, in that Case the Master shall take One Half of the Eighth, and the other Half shall be equally divided between the Mate, Midshipmen, and such other Persons in Our Pay. Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers, and the rest of the Crew. And in the Case of Prizes taken by any Hired Armed Vessel, not commanded by any of Our Commissioned Officers, One Eighth shall belong to the Flag-Officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag. Two Eighths shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third. Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers and the rest of the Crew, in Manner aforesaid. The Surplus, the Distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our Disposal; and if not disposed of within a Year after final Adjudication, the same shall belong and be paid to Greenwich Hospital. And in the Case of Prizes taken jointly by any of Our Ships of War, and any Hired Armed Vessel, Our Commissioned Officer or Officers on board such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with Our Commissioned Officer or Officers of the same Rank on board our Ship or Ship of War, being joint Captors: the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Warrant Officers; the Mate of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Petty Officers, and the Seamen of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Seamen on board Our said Ship or Ships of War; save and except that, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by One of Our Commissioned Officers, having the Rank of Master and Commander, and there shall be none of Our Lieutenants on board, or in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by the Master, in both those Cases, the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Lieutenants of Our Ships of War, and the Mate with the Warrant Officers. And in case any Difficulty should arise in respect to the said Distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to Our Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose Direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same Force and Effect as if herein inserted.

Provided that if any Officer, being on board any of Our Ships of War at the Time of Taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the abovementioned Distribution, shall belong to the superior Commission or Office:—Provided also, that in all Prizes taken by any of Our Squadrons, Ships, or Vessels, while acting in Conjunction with any Squadron, Ship, or Vessel of any other Power that may be in Alliance with us, a Share of such Prizes shall be set apart, and be at Our further Disposal, equal to that Share which the Flag, and other Officers and Crews of such Squadron, Ships, or Vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to Us.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War, taking any Prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on board Our Ships or Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on board, together with the Description of the Men, taken from the Description-Books of the capturing Ship or Ships, and their several Ratings, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster-Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster-Books and annexed Lists as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War; and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them the said Commissioners, they shall give, or cause to be given, to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Moller-Books of any such Ships of War and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part hereinbefore-mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag-Officers who shall actually be on board at the Taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Captain of a Ship shall be deemed to be under the Command of a Flag when he shall actually have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, a Flag-Officer, and shall be deemed to continue under the Command of such Flag so long as the Flag-Officer, by whom the Order was issued, or any other Flag-Officer acting upon the same Station, shall continue upon such Station; or until such Captain shall have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, some other Flag-Officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. Secondly, That a Flag-Officer Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag-Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command. Thirdly, That a Flag-Officer sent to command on any Station shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives within the Limits of such Station, and actually takes upon him the Command, by communicating Orders to the Flag-Officer previously in Command, save only that he shall be entitled to a Share of Prizes taken by those particular Ships to which he shall actually have given some Order, and taken under his Command, within the Limits of such Station. Fourthly, That a Commander in Chief, or other Flag-Officer, appointed or belonging to any Station, and passing through or into any other Station, shall not be entitled to share in any Prize out of the Limits of the Station to which he is appointed or belongs, by any Ship or Vessel under the Command of a Flag-Officer of any other Station, or under Admiralty Orders, unless such Commander in Chief or Flag-Officer is expressly authorized by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to take upon him the Command on that Station in which the Prize is taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such Command, in Manner aforesaid. Fifthly, That when an inferior Flag-Officer is sent to reinforce a superior Flag-Officer on any Station, the superior Flag-Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag-Officer before the inferior Flag-Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Station; and, moreover, shall actually receive some Order directly from him, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by him. Sixthly, That a chief Flag-Officer quitting a Station, either to return Home, or to assume another Command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent Service, with the Intention of returning to the Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share of Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind, after he shall have passed the Limits of the Station, or after he shall have surrendered the Command to another Flag-Officer appointed by the Admiralty to be Commander in Chief upon such Station. Seventhly, That an inferior Flag-Officer quitting a Station, except when detached by Orders from his Commander in Chief, out of the Limits thereof, upon a special Service, with Orders to return to such Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share in Prizes taken by the Ships and Vessels remaining on the Station, after he shall have passed the Limits thereof; and in like Manner the Flag-Officers remaining on the Station shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by such inferior Flag-Officer, or by the Ships and Vessels under his immediate Command, after he shall have quitted the Limits of his Station, except when detached as aforesaid. Eighthly, That when Vessels, under the Command of a Flag, which belong to separate Stations, shall happen to be Joint Captors, the Captain of each Ship shall pay One Third of the Share to which he is entitled to the Flag-Officers of the Station to which he belongs. But the Captains of Vessels under Admiralty Orders, being Joint Captors with other Vessels, under a Flag, shall retain the Whole of their Share. Ninthly, That if a Flag-Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed, or shall sail from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Tenthly, That when more Flag-Officers than one serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, videlicet, If there be but Two Flag-Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part: But if the Number of Flag-Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided among the other Flag-Officers. Eleventhly, That Commodores, with Captains under them, shall be esteemed as Flag-Officers, with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief, or serving under Command. Twelfthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of

Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag-Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to command a Fleet or Squadron of Ten Ships of the Line of Battle, or upwards, shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag-Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag-Officer of such Fleet or Squadron.

A DIVISION of Seventeen Bigs, Three Schooners, Four Sloops, a Dogger, and Six Luggers, arrived this Morning from the Westward; and although I got close enough to exchange Shot with the Body of them, the Wind and Lee-Tide enabled them to haul close to the Beach, and pass in that Manner. One Lugger had carried away her Fore-mast, and was cut off by the Harpy, whose Fire she returned before she struck. I have sent her to the Downs with the Bruiser.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Seventeenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics; And whereas by Our Order in Council, of the Eleventh Day of this instant January, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, or any Persons being Subjects of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within Our Dominions, duly authorized and required to take Cognizance thereof; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods during these Hostilities, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice and Consent of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to our further Pleasure, and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) but subject to the Payment of all such, or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say,

That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprisals (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners aforesaid), may be sold and disposed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others, to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprisals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before:

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the Neat Produce of all Prizes which are or shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjunct Expedition with Our Army, in which Case We reserve to Ourselves the Division and Distribution of all Prize and Booty taken; and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag-Officers, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board Our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows:—The Whole of the Neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts,

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are hereinafter-mentioned:

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which shall hereafter be taken by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such Physician be actually on board at the Time of Taking such Prizes. The Lieutenants and Quarter Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces; Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Second Masters of Line of Battle Ships, Boatswains, Gunners, Purfers, Carpenters, Master's-Mates, Chirurgens, Pilots, and Chaplains, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:—The Midshipmen, Captains' Clerks, Master Sailmakers, Carpenters'-Mates, Boatswains'-Mates, Gunners'-Mates, Masters at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswains, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters'-Mates, Chirurgens'-Mates, Yeomen of the Powder Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:—The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenters'-Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourers, Stewards'-Mates, Cook's-Mates, Gunsmiths, Coopers, Swabbers, Ordinary Trumpeters, Barbers, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty, and assisting on board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them:—And We do hereby further order, that, in the Case of Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, and other Armed Vessels, commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag-Officer or Officers, in which Case the Flag-Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided amongst such Flag-Officer or Officers in the same Manner herein-directed in the Case of Captains serving under Flag-Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Sub-Lieutenant, Master, and Pilot, shall be One Eighth; the said Eighth, if there be all Three such Persons on board, to be divided into Four Parts, Two Parts to be taken by the Sub-Lieutenant, One Part by the Master, and One Part by the Pilot; if there be only Two such Persons on board, then the Eighth to be divided into Three Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Person Second in Command, and One Third to the other Person, if there be only a Sub-Lieutenant, or a Master, and no Pilot, then the Sub-Lieutenant or Master to take the whole Eighth:—That the Share of the Chirurgens, or Chirurgens'-Mate, (where there is no Chirurgens,) Midshipmen, Clerk, and Steward, shall be One Eighth:—That the Share of the Boatswain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's-Mates, Yeoman of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's-Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts.

But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, That the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, Brig, or Armed Vessel, without any of Our Ships or Vessels of War being present, or within Sight of and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy; but in case any of Our Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men, on board such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, or Armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportions as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on board of Our Ships and Vessels of War; the Sub-Lieutenant and Master to be considered as Warrant Officers; and such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, or Armed Vessels shall not, in respect to such Captures, convey any Interest or Share in the Flag Eighth to the Flag-Officer or Officers under whose Orders such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, and Armed Vessels may happen to be; and We further order, that the Directions herein given with respect to the Shares of the Sub-Lieutenants, Masters, and Pilots on board Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, be applied to Captures made from France and the Batavian Republic:

And whereas it is judged expedient, during the present Hostilities, to hire into Our Service Armed Vessels, to be employed as Cruizers against the Enemy, which Vessels are the Property of, and their Masters and Crews are paid by, the Merchants of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by Our Commissioned Officers, in Our Pay, it is Our further Will and Pleasure, that the Neat Produce of all Prizes taken by such Hired Armed Vessels (except as hereinafter-mentioned) shall be for the Benefit of Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Masters and Crews on board the said Hired Armed Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise; the Distribution whereof shall be as follows:

The Whole of the Neat Produce being divided into Eight equal Parts, Our Officer commanding any Hired Armed Vessel, who shall be actually on board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighths; but in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag-Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing or assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag-Officers, in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are hereinafter-mentioned: In case there be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessels, besides Our Officer commanding the same, One or more of Our Commissioned Sea-Lieutenants in Our Pay, such Lieutenant or Lieutenants shall take One Eighth. One Eighth shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third; but in case there shall be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel One or more Midshipmen, or other Person in Our Pay, of those who are classed with Midshipmen in the former Part of this Our Proclamation, in that Case the Master shall take One Half of the Eighth, and the other Half shall be equally divided between the Mate, Midshipmen, and such other Persons in Our Pay. Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers, and the rest of the Crew. And in the Case of Prizes taken by any Hired Armed Vessel, not commanded by any of Our Commissioned Officers, One Eighth shall belong to the Flag-Officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag. Two Eighths shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third. Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers and the rest of the Crew, in Manner aforesaid. The Surplus, the Distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our Disposal; and if not disposed of within a Year after final Adjudication, the same shall belong and be paid to Greenwich Hospital. And in the Case of Prizes taken jointly by any of Our Ships of War, and any Hired Armed Vessel, Our Commissioned Officer or Officers on board such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with Our Commissioned Officer or Officers of the same Rank on board our Ship or Ships of War, being joint Captors; the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Warrant Officers; the Mate of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Petty Officers; and the Seamen of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Seamen on board Our said Ship or Ships of War; save and except that, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by One of Our Commissioned Officers, having the Rank of Master and Commander, and there shall be none of Our Lieutenants on board, or in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by the Master, in both those Cases, the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Lieutenants of Our Ships of War, and the Mate with the Warrant Officers. And in case any Difficulty should arise in respect to the said Distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to Our Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose Direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same Force and Effect as if herein inserted.

Provided that if any Officer, being on board any of Our Ships of War at the Time of Taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the abovementioned Distribution, shall belong to the superior Commission or Office:—Provided also, that in all Prizes taken by any of Our Squadrons, Ships, or Vessels, while acting in Conjunction with any Squadron, Ship, or Vessel of any other Power that may be in Alliance with us, a Share of such Prizes shall be set apart, and be at Our further Disposal, equal to that Share which the Flag, and other Officers and Crews of such Squadron, Ships, or Vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to Us.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War, taking any Prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on board Our Ships or Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on board, together with the Description of the Men, taken from the Description-Books of the capturing Ship or Ships, and their several Ratings, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster-Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster-Books and annexed Lists as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War; and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them the said Commissioners, they shall give, or cause to be given, to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Muster-Books of any such Ships of War and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part hereinbefore-mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag-Officers who shall actually be on board at the Taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Captain of a Ship shall be deemed to be under the Command of a Flag when he shall actually have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, a Flag-Officer, and shall be deemed to continue under the Command of such Flag so long as the Flag-Officer, by whom the Order was issued, or any other Flag-Officer acting upon the same Station, shall continue upon such Station; or until such Captain shall have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, some other Flag-Officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. Secondly, That a Flag-Officer Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag-Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command. Thirdly, That a Flag-Officer sent to command on any Station shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives within the Limits of such Station, and actually takes upon him the Command, by communicating Orders to the Flag-Officer previously in Command, save only that he shall be entitled to a Share of Prizes taken by those particular Ships to which he shall actually have given some Order, and taken under his Command, within the Limits of such Station. Fourthly, That a Commander in Chief, or other Flag-Officer, appointed or belonging to any Station, and passing through or into any other Station, shall not be entitled to share in any Prize out of the Limits of the Station to which he is appointed or belongs, by any Ship or Vessel under the Command of a Flag-Officer of any other Station, or under Admiralty Orders, unless such Commander in Chief or Flag-Officer is expressly authorised by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to take upon him the Command on that Station in which the Prize is taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such Command, in Manner aforesaid. Fifthly, That when an inferior Flag-Officer is sent to reinforce a superior Flag-Officer on any Station, the superior Flag-Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag-Officer before the inferior Flag-Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Station: and, moreover, shall actually receive some Order directly from him, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by him. Sixthly, That a chief Flag-Officer quitting a Station, either to return Home, or to assume another Command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent Service, with the Intention of returning to the Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share of Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind, after he shall have passed the Limits of the Station, or after he shall have surrendered the Command to another Flag-Officer appointed by the Admiralty to be Commander in Chief upon such Station. Seventhly, That an inferior Flag-Officer quitting a Station, except when detached by Orders from his Commander in Chief, out of the Limits thereof, upon a special Service, with Orders to return to such Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share in Prizes taken by the Ships and Vessels remaining on the Station, after he shall have passed the Limits thereof; and in like Manner the Flag-Officers remaining on the Station shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by such inferior Flag-Officer, or by the Ships and Vessels under his immediate Command, after he shall have quitted the Limits of his Station, except when detached as aforesaid. Eighthly, That when Vessels, under the Command of a Flag, which belong to separate Stations, shall happen to be Joint Captors, the Captain of each Ship shall pay One Third of the Share to which he is entitled to the Flag-Officers of the Station to which he belongs. But the Captains of Vessels under Admiralty Orders, being Joint Captors with other Vessels, under a Flag, shall retain the Whole of their Share. Ninthly, That if a Flag-Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed, or shall sail from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Tenthly, That when more Flag-Officers than one serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, videlicet, If there be but Two Flag-Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part: But if the Number of Flag-Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided among the other Flag-Officers. Eleventhly, That Commodores, with Captains under them, shall be esteemed as Flag-Officers, with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief, or serving under Command: Twelfthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag-Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to command a Fleet or Squadron of Ten Ships of the Line of Battle, or upwards, shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag-Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag-Officer of such Fleet or Squadron.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS alarming Accounts have been received that the Infections Disease (which, with a Malignancy equalling if not exceeding that of the Plague, has occasioned a dreadful Mortality in several Parts of Spain, and in Our Town and Garrison of Gibraltar) has spread and extended itself to Parts of the Coast of the Mediterranean; And whereas, from the Season of the Year in which it has continued its Ravages in those Places where it has already appeared, there is no good Ground of Confidence or Hope that the comparative Coldness and the Temperature of this Climate can afford any Obstacle to its Introduction and Progress in Our Kingdom:

And whereas we feel it to be incumbent upon Us to employ such Means as, under the Protection and Favour of Divine Providence, may be best calculated to guard Our loving Subjects against the Visitation of so dreadful a Calamity, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do herein, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, most strictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, and more especially those residing at any of the Sea-Port Towns, or in any other Places on the Coasts of this Kingdom, whether they may themselves be liable to Quarantine or otherwise, as they tender the Preservation of their own Lives, and the Safety and Welfare of all the Inhabitants of this Kingdom, most scrupulously to observe all the Laws of Quarantine which now are or may hereafter be in Force, and all Orders made by Us, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Privy Council, under the Authority thereof; and particularly most carefully to avoid any Communication with any Ship or Vessel, or with any Person or Persons coming therein, from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, or from Cadiz, or other Parts of Spain without the Streights, lying to the Southward of Cape St. Vincent, or from any Place to which, by Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Orders in Council, the Laws of Quarantine are, or may hereafter, be extended; or with any Boat or Person therein, coming from or having been on board any such Ship, until such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with the Crews and Persons on board, and the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes imported therein, shall have performed their Quarantine, in such Places and Manner as are or shall hereafter be directed in that Behalf, and until they respectively shall have been duly discharged therefrom: And We do further strictly exhort, enjoin, and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, and all others Our loving Subjects, without Loss of Time, to give Information to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or to Our Privy Council, of any Persons that they may know or believe to have offended against any of the said Laws or Orders; and We do hereby warn all Persons whom it may concern, that We have given the strictest Orders for enforcing, with the utmost Rigour, the most punctual Observance of the Laws of Quarantine, and all the Orders, Rules, and Regulations relating thereto, it being Our firm Determination, upon serious Consideration of the great Extent of Misery and Calamity which a single Instance of improvidently neglecting any of these Regulations may bring upon Our loving Subjects, to cause the several Penalties which the Law has provided, or may provide, to be inflicted upon all those who may be guilty of any Offence against the same:

And whereas it is also necessary to take the utmost Precaution to prevent the spreading of Infection, in case the said malignant Disease, or any other of a contagious Nature, (which God, in His Mercy, avert!) should unhappily manifest itself in any Part of Our United Kingdom, notwithstanding the Precautions taken to guard against the Introduction

thereof, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, to take Measures for the Establishment of a Board of Health, to consist of Men able, learned, eminent, and experienced in the Study and Practice of Physic, together with Persons most capable, from their Knowledge of the Ports of Our Kingdoms, to afford Assistance in the forming of Regulations respectively applicable to the local Circumstances of the said Ports; such Board to be authorized and directed to prepare and digest the best Rules and Regulations for the speedy and effectual Adoption of the most approved Methods of guarding against the Introduction and spreading of Infection, and for purifying any Ship or House, or any Place in which any contagious Disorder may have manifested itself, and to communicate the same to all Magistrates, Medical Persons, and others of Our loving Subjects, who may be desirous, and may apply to be made acquainted therewith; and We most strictly enjoin and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, all Medical Persons, and others Our loving Subjects, especially those within the Maritime Counties, to give immediate Notice to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or Our Privy Council, in case any Person or Persons should be attacked with any Fever, attended with new and uncommon Symptoms, such as to afford Ground for Apprehension that such Fever is of the same Nature as the Disorder prevailing in several Parts of Spain, and in Gibraltar, in order that the most immediate and effectual Measures may be taken, as well for affording due and necessary Assistance and Relief to those afflicted with the same, as for preventing the Contagion from spreading amongst Our loving Subjects.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixth Day of February, One thousand eight hundred and five, and in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

of December next, inclusive: And whereas We have, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, thought it expedient and necessary for the public Service that the said Reward should be increased, We do hereby promise and declare, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, that a Reward of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Fifty Shillings for every Ordinary Seamen, fit to serve on board Our Ships, shall be paid to any Person who shall discover any such Seaman or Seamen respectively, who may conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service by any of Our Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive; the said Rewards to be paid for any such Seaman or Seamen respectively, so discovered and taken in and about London, by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, and at the Out-Ports, by the Naval Officers (where there are any); and (where there are no Naval Officers) by the Collectors of Our Customs, immediately upon a Certificate being produced to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, Naval Officers, or Collectors respectively, by the Person who may make Discovery of any Seaman or Seamen as aforesaid, certifying his Name, and the Name or Names, and Number and Quality of Seamen procured in Consequence of his Discovery; the said Certificate to be given by such Officer as may take such Seaman or Seamen for Our Service.

Admiralty-Office, February 9, 1805.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Sir Samuel Hood, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Serapis, at Barbadoes, 16th of December 1804.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter from Captain Nourse, of His Majesty's Ship Barbadoes, giving an Account of the Capture of the Heureux French Privateer, of Ten Guns and Eighty Men. I am, &c. SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Ship Barbadoes, at Sea,
November 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, His Majesty's Ship under my Command this Day captured L'Peureux, a French Privateer Sloop of Ten Six-Pounders (thrown overboard during the Chase) and Eighty Men, out Nine Days from Guadaloupe, and had made no Capture.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOSEPH NOURSE.

To Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief,

Admiralty-Office, February 9, 1805.

Copy of another Letter from Commodore Sir Samuel Hood, K. B. to W. Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Serapis, at Barbadoes, 16th December 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Satisfaction to send to their Lordships the Copy of a Letter from the Honorable Captain Cadogan, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop Cyane, giving an Account of the Capture of the Bonaparte Brig Privateer of Eighteen Guns and One Hundred and Fifty Men, after a few Minutes running Fight, which Captain Cadogan appears to have executed with Judgment.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Sloop Cyane, off Antigua,
12th November 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that, on the 11th Instant, at Three A. M. off the Island of Mariegalante, after a short Chase and running Fight of Thirty Minutes, I had the good Fortune to come up with and capture Le Bonaparte, a very fine Privateer Brig, pierced for Twenty-two Guns, mounting Eighteen long French Eight-Pounders, and One Hundred and Fifty Men. I am happy to add that we have received no material Damage in our Masts or Hull, and have only a few Men hurt, occasioned by the Explosion of a Cartridge on the Main Deck. We found the Bonaparte in a very shattered Condition, having lost her Foremast, Bowsprit, and Topmasts in an Action with Three English Letters of Marque three Days previous to her Capture. I should not do justice to my Feelings were I to omit expressing my thorough Satisfaction at the steady and determined Conduct of all the Officers and Crew of the Cyane; and although the State of the Vessel was such as not to call forth any extraordinary Exertions on their Part, I feel confident that whenever Chance may give them an Opportunity, they will do ample Justice to the Character which in my Opinion they so justly deserve.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GEO. CADOGAN.

Samuel Hood, Esq; Commodore, and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, February 9, 1805.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Lord Mark Robert Kerr, of His Majesty's Ship Fisgard, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Sea, the 24th of December 1804.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of Letter which I have forwarded to Lord Viscount Nelson. I have the Honor to be, &c.

M. R. KERR.

His Majesty's Ship Fisgard, at Sea,
December 22, 1804.

MY LORD,

I BEG to inform you, that, according to your Orders, I proceeded and joined Sir Richard Strachan, Bart. off Cape St. Mary's, and was by him sent into Lisbon to complete. On my Return from that Port to join your Lordship, in Latitude 37 Deg. N. Longitude 13 Deg. 40 Min. W. I captured a French Ship Letter of Marque, Le Tigre, (formerly the Angola of Liverpool,) from Cayenne to Cadiz; pierced for Sixteen Guns, and having Fourteen mounted, viz. Twelve Eighteen-Pound Carronades, and Two Brass Guns, Four-Pounders, (and Four in her Hold,) ballasted in Mahogany and Dry Wood, having on board Forty Men. She was out Fifty-six Days, and had captured an English Brig from London to St. Michael's; whose Master and Crew we found on board.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) M. R. KERR.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS alarming Accounts have been received that the Infectious Disease (which, with a Malignancy equalling if not exceeding that of the Plague, has occasioned a dreadful Mortality in several Parts of Spain, and in Our Town and Garrison of Gibraltar) has spread and extended itself to Parts of the Coast of the Mediterranean; And whereas, from the Season of the Year in which it has continued its Ravages in those Places where it has already appeared, there is no good Ground of Confidence or Hope that the comparative Coldness and the Temperature of this Climate can afford any Obstacle to its Introduction and Progress in Our Kingdom:

And whereas we feel it to be incumbent upon Us to employ such Means as, under the Protection and Favour of Divine Providence, may be best calculated to guard Our loving Subjects against the Visitation of so dreadful a Calamity, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do herein, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, most strictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, and more especially those residing at any of the Sea-Port Towns, or in any other Places on the Coasts of this Kingdom, whether they may themselves be liable to Quarantine or otherwise, as they tender the Preservation of their own Lives, and the Safety and Welfare of all the Inhabitants of this Kingdom, most scrupulously to observe all the Laws of Quarantine which now are or may hereafter be in Force, and all Orders made by Us, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Privy Council, under the Authority thereof; and particularly most carefully to avoid any Communication with any Ship or Vessel, or with any Person or Persons coming therein, from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, or from Cadiz, or other Parts of Spain without the Streights, lying to the Southward of Cape St. Vincent, or from any Place to which, by Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Orders in Council, the Laws of Quarantine are, or may hereafter, be extended; or with any Boat or Person therein, coming from or having been on board any such Ship, until such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with the Crews and Persons on board, and the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes imported therein, shall have performed their Quarantine, in such Places and Manner as are or shall hereafter be directed in that Behalf, and until they respectively shall have been duly discharged therefrom: And We do further strictly exhort, enjoin, and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, and all others Our loving Subjects, without Loss of Time, to give Information to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or to Our Privy Council, of any Persons that they may know or believe to have offended against any of the said Laws or Orders; and We do hereby warn all Persons whom it may concern, that We have given the strictest Orders for enforcing, with the utmost Rigour, the most punctual Observance of the Laws of Quarantine, and all the Orders, Rules, and Regulations relating thereto, it being Our firm Determination, upon serious Consideration of the great Extent of Misery and Calamity which a single Instance of improvidently neglecting any of these Regulations may bring upon Our loving Subjects, to cause the several Penalties which the Law has provided, or may provide, to be inflicted upon all those who may be guilty of any Offence against the same:

And whereas it is also necessary to take the utmost Precaution to prevent the spreading of Infection, in case the said malignant Disease, or any other of a contagious Nature, (which God, in His Mercy, avert!) should unhappily manifest itself in any Part of Our United Kingdom, notwithstanding the Precautions taken to guard against the Introduction thereof, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, to take Measures for the Establishment of a Board of Health, to consist of Men able, learned, eminent, and experienced in the Study and Practice of Physic, together with Persons most capable, from their Knowledge of the Ports of Our Kingdoms, to afford Assistance in the forming of Regulations respectively applicable to the local Circumstances of the said Ports; such Board to be authorized and directed to prepare and digest the best Rules and Regulations for the speedy and effectual Adoption of the most approved Methods of guarding against the Introduction and spreading of Infection, and for purifying any Ship or House, or any Place in which any contagious Disorder may have manifested itself, and to communicate the same to all Magistrates, Medical Persons, and others of Our loving Subjects, who may be desirous, and may apply to be made acquainted therewith; and We most strictly enjoin and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, all Medical Persons, and others Our loving Subjects, especially those within the Maritime Counties, to give immediate Notice to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or Our Privy Council, in case any Person or Persons should be attacked with any Fever, attended with new and uncommon Symptoms, such as to afford Ground for Apprehension that such Fever is of the same Nature as the Disorder prevailing in several Parts of Spain, and in Gibraltar, in order that the most immediate and effectual Measures may be taken, as well for affording due and necessary Assistance and Relief to those afflicted with the same, as for preventing the Contagion from spreading amongst Our loving Subjects.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Seventh of March One thousand eight hundred and three, We were pleased, amongst other Things, to promise and declare that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board Our Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for Our Service by any of Our Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirteenth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited for the Payment of the said Reward has been, by several Orders in Council, prolonged to the Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive: And whereas We have, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, thought it expedient and necessary for the public Service that the said Reward should be increased, We do hereby promise and declare, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, that a Reward of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Fifty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board Our Ships, shall be paid to any Person who shall discover any such Seaman or Seamen respectively, who may conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service by any of Our Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the said Thirty first Day of December next, inclusive; the said Rewards to be paid for any such Seaman or Seamen respectively, so discovered and taken in and about London, by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, and at the Out-Ports, by the Naval Officers (where there are any); and (where there are no Naval Officers) by the Collectors of Our Customs, immediately upon a Certificate being produced to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, Naval Officers, or Collectors respectively, by the Person who may make Discovery of any Seaman or Seamen as aforesaid, certifying his Name, and the Name or Names, and Number and Quality of Seamen procured in Consequence of his Discovery; the said Certificate to be given by such Officer as may take such Seaman or Seamen for Our Service.

A PROCLAMATION.

For granting the Distribution of Prizes during the present Hostilities.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Seventeenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics; And whereas by Our Order in Council, of the Eleventh Day of this instant January, We have ordered that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, or any Persons being Subjects of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the Countries styling themselves the Italian and Ligurian Republics, or the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within Our Dominions, duly authorised and required to take Cognizance thereof; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects who shall lawfully seize the same, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals of all Ships and Goods during these Hostilities, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice and Consent of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to our further Pleasure, and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) but subject to the Payment of all such, or the like Custans and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say,

That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprisals (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service of, Our Commissioners aforesaid), may be sold and disposed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others, to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprisals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before:

And We do hereby further order and direct, that the Neat Produce of all Prizes which are or shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, (save and except when they shall be acting on any conjunct Expedition with Our Army, in which Case We reserve to Ourselves the Division and Distribution of all Prize and Booty taken; and also save and except as hereinafter-mentioned,) shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag-Officers, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board Our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows:—The Whole of the Neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts,

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are hereinafter-mentioned:

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which shall hereafter be taken by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such Physician be actually on board at the Time of Taking such Prizes. The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces; Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Second Masters of Line of Battle Ships, Boatswains, Gunners, Purfers, Carpenters, Master's-Mates, Chirurgeons, Pilots, and Chaplains, on board, shall have

One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:—The Midshipmen, Captains' Clerks, Master Sailmakers, Carpenters' Mates, Boatswains' Mates, Gunners' Mates, Masters at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswains, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters' Mates, Chirurgeons' Mates, Yeomen of the Powder Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces, on board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:—The Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenters' Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourers, Stewards' Mates, Cook's Mates, Gunsmiths, Coopers, Swabbers, Ordinary Trumpeters, Barbers, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty, and assisting on board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them:—

And We do hereby further order, that, in the Case of Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, and other Armed Vessels, commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag-Officer or Officers, in which Case the Flag-Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided amongst such Flag-Officer or Officers in the same Manner herein-directed in the Case of Captains serving under Flag-Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Sub-Lieutenant, Master, and Pilot, shall be One Eighth; the said Eighth, if there be all Three such Persons on board, to be divided into Four Parts, Two Parts to be taken by the Sub-Lieutenant, One Part by the Master, and One Part by the Pilot; if there be only Two such Persons on board, then the Eighth to be divided into Three Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Person Second in Command, and One Third to the other Person, if there be only a Sub-Lieutenant, or a Master, and no Pilot, then the Sub-Lieutenant or Master to take the whole Eighth:—That the Share of the Chirurgeon, or Chirurgeon's-Mate, (where there is no Chirurgeon,) Midshipmen, Clerk, and Steward, shall be One Eighth:—That the Share of the Boatswain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's-Mates, Yeoman of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's-Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts.

But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, That the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, Brig, or Armed Vessel, without any of Our Ships or Vessels of War being present, or within Sight of and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy; but in case any of Our Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men, on board such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, or Armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportions as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on board of Our Ships and Vessels of War; the Sub-Lieutenant and Master to be considered as Warrant Officers; and such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, or Armed Vessels shall not, in respect to such Captures, convey any Interest or Share in the Flag Eighth to the Flag-Officer or Officers under whose Orders such Cutters, Schooners, Brigs, and Armed Vessels may happen to be; and We further order, that the Directions herein given with respect to the Shares of the Sub-Lieutenants, Masters, and Pilots on board Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, be applied to Captures made from France and the Batavian Republic:

And whereas it is judged expedient, during the present Hostilities, to hire into Our Service Armed Vessels, to be employed as Cruizers against the Enemy, which Vessels are the Property of, and their Masters and Crews are paid by, the Merchants of whom they are hired, although several of them are commanded by Our Commissioned Officers, in Our Pay, it is Our further Will and Pleasure, that the Net Produce of all Prizes taken by such Hired Armed Vessels (except as hereinafter-mentioned) shall be for the Benefit of Our Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Masters and Crews on board the said Hired Armed Vessels at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise; the Distribution whereof shall be as follows:

The Whole of the Net Produce being divided into Eight equal Parts, Our Officer commanding any Hired Armed Vessel, who shall be actually on board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighths; but in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag-Officer or Officers being actually on board, or directing or assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag-Officers, in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are hereinafter-mentioned: In case there be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessels, besides Our Officer commanding the same, One or more of Our Commissioned Sea Lieutenants in Our Pay, such Lieutenant or Lieutenants shall take One Eighth. One Eighth shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third; but in case there shall be acting on board such Hired Armed Vessel One or more Midshipmen, or other Person in Our Pay, of those who are classt with Midshipmen in the former Part of this Our Proclamation, in that Case the Master shall take One Half of the Eighth, and the other Half shall be equally divided between the Mate, Midshipmen, and such other Persons in Our Pay. Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers, and the rest of the Crew. And in the Case of Prizes taken by any Hired Armed Vessel, not commanded by any of Our Commissioned Officers, One Eighth shall belong to the Flag-Officers, to be divided as aforesaid, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be under the Command of a Flag. Two Eighths shall belong to the Master and Mate, of which the Master shall take Two Thirds, and the Mate One Third. Three Eighths shall belong to and be divided among the other Officers and the rest of the Crew, in Manner aforesaid. The Surplus, the Distribution of which is not herein directed, shall remain at Our Disposal; and if not disposed of within a Year after final Adjudication, the same shall belong and be paid to Greenwich Hospital. And in the Case of Prizes taken jointly by any of Our Ships of War, and any Hired Armed Vessel, Our Commissioned Officer or Officers on board such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with Our Commissioned Officer or Officers of the same Rank on board our Ship or Ships of War, being joint Captors; the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Warrant Officers; the Mate of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Petty Officers; and the Seamen of such Hired Armed Vessel with the Seamen on board Our said Ship or Ships of War; save and except that, in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by One of Our Commissioned Officers, having the Rank of Master and Commander, and there shall be none of Our Lieutenants on board, or in case such Hired Armed Vessel shall be commanded by the Master, in both those Cases, the Master of such Hired Armed Vessel shall share with the Lieutenants of Our Ships of War, and the Mate with the Warrant Officers. And in case any Difficulty should arise in respect to the said Distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to Our Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose Direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same Force and Effect as if herein inserted.

Provided that if any Officer, being on board any of Our Ships of War at the Time of Taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the abovementioned Distribution, shall belong to the superior Commission or Office:—Provided also, that in all Prizes taken by any of Our Squadrons, Ships, or Vessels, while acting in Conjunction with any Squadron, Ship, or Vessel of any other Power that may be in Alliance with us, a Share of such Prizes shall be set apart, and be at Our further Disposal, equal to that Share which the Flag, and other Officers and Crews of such Squadron, Ships, or Vessels would have been entitled to if they had belonged to Us.

And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War, taking any Prize, to transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on board Our Ships or Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on board, together with the Description of the Men, taken from the Description-Books of the capturing Ship or Ships, and their several Ratings, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster-Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster-Books and annexed Lists as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War; and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them the said Commissioners, they shall give, or cause to be given, to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Muster-Books of any such Ships of War and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary: We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part hereinbefore-mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag-Officers who shall actually be on board at the Taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Captain of a Ship shall be deemed to be under the Command of a Flag when he shall actually have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, a Flag-Officer, and shall be deemed to continue under the Command of such Flag so long as the Flag-Officer, by whom the Order was issued, or any other Flag-Officer acting upon the same Station, shall continue upon such Station; or until such Captain shall have received some Order directly from, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by, some other Flag-Officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. Secondly, That a Flag-Officer Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag-Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command. Thirdly, That a Flag-Officer sent to command on any Station shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives within the Limits of such Station, and actually takes upon him the Command, by communicating Orders to the Flag-Officer previously in Command, save only that he shall be entitled to a Share of Prizes taken by those particular Ships to which he shall actually have given some Order, and taken under his Command, within the Limits of such Station. Fourthly, That a Commander in Chief, or other Flag-Officer, appointed or belonging to any Station, and passing through or into any other Station, shall not be entitled to share in any Prize out of the Limits of the Station to which he is appointed or belongs, by any Ship or Vessel under the Command of a Flag-Officer of any other Station, or under Admiralty Orders, unless such Commander in Chief or Flag-Officer is expressly authorised by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to take upon him the Command on that Station in which the Prize is taken, and shall actually have taken upon him such Command, in Manner aforesaid. Fifthly, That when an inferior Flag-Officer is sent to reinforce a superior Flag-Officer on any Station, the superior Flag-Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag-Officer before the inferior Flag-Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Station; and, moreover, shall actually receive some Order directly from him, or be acting in Execution of some Order issued by him. Sixthly, That a chief Flag-Officer quitting a Station, either to return Home, or to assume another Command, or otherwise, except upon some particular urgent Service, with the Intention of returning to the Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share of Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind, after he shall have passed the Limits of the Station, or after he shall have surrendered the Command to another Flag-Officer appointed by the Admiralty to be Commander in Chief upon such Station. Seventhly, That an inferior Flag-Officer quitting a Station, except when detached by Orders from his Commander in Chief, out of the Limits thereof, upon a special Service, with Orders to return to such Station as soon as such Service is performed, shall have no Share in Prizes taken by the Ships and Vessels remaining on the Station, after he shall have passed the Limits thereof; and in like Manner the Flag-Officers remaining on the Station shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by such inferior Flag-Officer, or by the Ships and Vessels under his immediate Command, after he shall have quitted the Limits of his Station, except when detached as aforesaid. Eighthly, That when Vessels, under the Command of a Flag, which belong to separate Stations, shall happen to be Joint Captors, the Captain of each Ship shall pay One Third of the Share to which he is entitled to the Flag-Officers of the Station to which he belongs. But the Captains of Vessels under Admiralty Orders, being Joint Captors with other Vessels, under a Flag, shall retain the Whole of their Share. Ninthly, That if a Flag-Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed, or shall sail from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Tenthly, That when more Flag-Officers than one serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, videlicet, If there be but Two Flag-Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth: and the other shall have the remaining Third Part. But if the Number of Flag-Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided among the other Flag-Officers. Eleventhly, That Commodores, with Captains under them, shall be esteemed as Flag-Officers, with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief, or serving under Command. Twelfthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag-Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to command a Fleet or Squadron of Ten Ships of the Line of Battle, or upwards, shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag-Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag-Officer of such Fleet or Squadron.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, the Thirty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five, in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS alarming Accounts have been received that the Infectious Disease (which, with a Malignancy equalling if not exceeding that of the Plague, has occasioned a dreadful Mortality in several Parts of Spain, and in Our Town and Garrison of Gibraltar) has spread and extended itself to Parts of the Coast of the Mediterranean; And whereas, from the Season of the Year in which it has continued its Ravages in those Places where it has already appeared, there is no good Ground of Confidence or Hope that the comparative Coldness and the Temperature of this Climate can afford any Obstacle to its Introduction and Progress in Our Kingdom:

And whereas we feel it to be incumbent upon Us to employ such Means as, under the Protection and Favour of Divine Providence, may be best calculated to guard Our loving Subjects against the Visitation of so dreadful a Calamity, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do herein, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, most strictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, and more especially those residing at any of the Sea-Port Towns, or in any other Places on the Coasts of this Kingdom, whether they may themselves be liable to Quarantine or otherwise, as they tender the Preservation of their own Lives, and the Safety and Welfare of all the Inhabitants of this Kingdom, most scrupulously to observe all the Laws of Quarantine which now are or may hereafter be in Force, and all Orders made by Us, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Privy Council, under the Authority thereof; and particularly most carefully to avoid any Communication with any Ship or Vessel, or with any Person or Persons coming therein, from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, or from Cadiz, or other Parts of Spain without the Straights, lying to the Southward of Cape St. Vincent, or from any Place to which, by Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Orders in Council, the Laws of Quarantine are, or may hereafter, be extended; or with any Boat or Person therein, coming from or having been on board any such Ship, until such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with the Crews and Persons on board, and the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes imported therein, shall have performed their Quarantine, in such Places and Manner as are or shall hereafter be directed in that Behalf, and until they respectively shall have been duly discharged therefrom: And We do further strictly exhort, enjoin, and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, and all others Our loving Subjects, without Loss of Time, to give Information to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or to Our Privy Council, of any Persons that they may know or believe to have offended against any of the said Laws or Orders; and We do hereby warn all Persons whom it may concern, that We have given the strictest Orders for enforcing, with the utmost Rigour, the most punctual Observance of the Laws of Quarantine, and all the Orders, Rules, and Regulations relating thereto, it being Our firm Determination, upon serious Consideration of the great Extent of Misery and Calamity which a single Instance of improvidently neglecting any of these Regulations may bring upon Our loving Subjects, to cause the several Penalties which the Law has provided, or may provide, to be inflicted upon all those who may be guilty of any Offence against the same:

And whereas it is also necessary to take the utmost Precaution to prevent the spreading of Infection, in case the said malignant Disease, or any other of a contagious Nature, (which God, in His Mercy, avert!) should unhappily manifest itself in any Part of Our United Kingdom, notwithstanding the Precautions taken to guard against the Introduction thereof, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, to take Measures for the Establishment of a Board of Health, to consist of Men able, learned, eminent, and experienced in the Study and Practice of Physic, together with Persons most capable, from their Knowledge of the Ports of Our Kingdoms, to afford Assistance in the forming of Regulations respectively applicable to the local Circumstances of the said Ports; such Board to be authorized and directed to prepare and digest the best Rules and Regulations for the speedy and effectual Adoption of the most approved Methods of guarding against the Introduction and spreading of Infection, and for purifying any Ship or House, or any Place in which any contagious Disorder may have manifested itself, and to communicate the same to all Magistrates, Medical Persons, and others of Our loving Subjects, who may be desirous, and may apply to be made acquainted therewith; and We most strictly enjoin and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, all Medical Persons, and others Our loving Subjects, especially those within the Maritime Counties, to give immediate Notice to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or Our Privy Council, in case any Person or Persons should be attacked with any Fever, attended with new and uncommon Symptoms, such as to afford Ground for Apprehension that such Fever is of the same Nature as the Disorder prevailing in several Parts of Spain, and in Gibraltar, in order that the most immediate and effectual Measures may be taken, as well for affording due and necessary Assistance and Relief to those afflicted with the same, as for preventing the Contagion from spreading amongst Our loving Subjects.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixth Day of February, One thousand eight hundred and five, and in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION. GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Seventh of March One thousand eight hundred and three, We were pleased, amongst other Things, to promise and declare that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board Our Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for Our Service by any of Our Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirteenth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited for the Payment of the said Reward has been, by several Orders in Council, prolonged to the Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive: And whereas We have, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, thought it expedient and necessary for the public Service that the said Reward should be increased, We do hereby promise and declare, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, that a Reward of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Fifty Shillings for every Ordinary Seamen, fit to serve on board Our Ships, shall be paid to any Person who shall discover any such Seaman or Seamen respectively, who may conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service by any of Our Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive; the said Rewards to be paid for any such Seaman or Seamen respectively, so discovered and taken in and about London, by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, and at the Out-Ports, by the Naval Officers (where there are any); and (where there are no Naval Officers) by the Collectors of Our Customs, immediately upon a Certificate being produced to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, Naval Officers, or Collectors respectively, by the Person who may make Discovery of any Seaman or Seamen as aforesaid, certifying his Name, and the Name or Names, and Number and Quality of Seamen procured in Consequence of his Discovery; the said Certificate to be given by such Officer as may take such Seaman or Seamen for Our Service.

Given at Our Court, at the Queen's Palace, this Sixth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and five, and in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Ville de Paris, off Ushant, the 13th February 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter to me from Captain Poyntz, of the Melampus, and one from Lieutenant Nicholson, commanding the Frisk Cutter, giving Accounts of the Capture of the Enemy's Gun-Vessels, therein mentioned.

SIR, Melampus, off Ushant, Feb. 13, 1805.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that I, this Morning, fell in with and captured Two Gun-Brigs, carrying Two long Twenty-four-Pounders and One Eighteen-Pounder each, having on board Fifty Men, the greater Part Soldiers; also Four Luggers, mounting One long Eighteen-Pounder each, manned with Twenty-five Men, mostly Soldiers.

These Vessels are Part of Twenty-seven of the same Description, from Bourdeaux to Brest; Two more were captured (Lugger rigged) early the same Morning by the Rhoda and Frisk Armed Cutters.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

S. POYNTZ.

To the Honorable William Cornwallis, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Hired Cutter Frisk, at Sea, 13th February 1805.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, at Daylight Yesterday, (the Rhoda Cutter in Company,) I discovered Ten Sail of the Enemy's Gun-Brigs and Luggers had come through the Passage du Raz, and the Wind blowing fresh to the Eastward, they were not able to get to Windward: I immediately gave Chase to the Weathermost, a Lugger, and at half-past Seven (Point du Raz S. S. W., distant Five Miles) I captured her, and sent her to Plymouth. She proves to be No. 288, Gun-Vessel, mounting One long Twenty-four-Pounder, with Twenty-five Men, Twenty of whom are Troops of the 44th Regiment, commanded by Monf. P. Roux, Enseigne de Vaisseau. At half-past Eleven the Melampus hove in Sight to Leeward.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS alarming Accounts have been received that the Infectious Disease (which, with a Malignancy equalling if not exceeding that of the Plague, has occasioned a dreadful Mortality in several Parts of Spain, and in Our Town and Garrison of Gibraltar) has spread and extended itself to Parts of the Coast of the Mediterranean; And whereas, from the Season of the Year in which it has continued its Ravages in those Places where it has already appeared, there is no good Ground of Confidence or Hope that the comparative Coldness and the Temperature of this Climate can afford any Obstacle to its Introduction and Progress in Our Kingdom:

And whereas we feel it to be incumbent upon Us to employ such Means as, under the Protection and Favour of Divine Providence, may be best calculated to guard Our loving Subjects against the Visitation of so dreadful a Calamity, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do herein, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, most strictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, and more especially those residing at any of the Seaport Towns, or in any other Places on the Coasts of this Kingdom, whether they may themselves be liable to Quarantine or otherwise, as they tender the Preservation of their own Lives, and the Safety and Welfare of all the Inhabitants of this Kingdom, most scrupulously to observe all the Laws of Quarantine which now are or may hereafter be in Force, and all Orders made by Us, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Privy Council, under the Authority thereof; and particularly most carefully to avoid any Communication with any Ship or Vessel, or with any Person or Persons coming therein, from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Bary, on the Atlantic Ocean, or from Cadiz, or other parts of Spain without the Streights, lying to the southward of Cape St. Vincent, or from any Place to which, by Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Orders and Council, the Laws of Quarantine are, or may hereafter, be extended; or with any Boat or Person therein, coming from or having been on board any such Ship, until such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, with the Crews and Persons on board, and the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes imported therein, shall have performed their Quarantine, in such Places and Manner as are or shall hereafter be directed in that behalf, and until they respectively shall have been duly discharged therefrom: And We do further strictly exhort, enjoin, and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, and all others Our loving Subjects, without Loss of Time, to give Information to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or to Our Privy Council, of any Persons that they may know or believe to have offended against any of the said Laws and Orders; and We do hereby warn all Persons whom it may concern, that We have given the strictest Orders for enforcing, with the utmost Rigour, the most punctual Obedience of the Laws of Quarantine, and all the Orders, Rules, and Regulations relating thereto, it being Our firm Determination, upon serious Consideration of the great Extent of Misery and Calamity which a single Instance of providently neglecting any of these Regulations may bring upon Our loving Subjects, to cause the several Penalties which the Law has provided, or may provide, to be inflicted upon all those who may be guilty of any Offence against the same:

And whereas it is also necessary to take the utmost Precaution to prevent the spreading of Infection, in case the said malignant Disease, or any other of a contagious Nature, (which God, in His Mercy, avert!) should unhappily manifest itself in any Part of Our United Kingdom, notwithstanding the Precautions taken to guard against the Introduction thereof, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our said Council, to take Measures for the Establishment of a Board of Health, to consist of men able, learned, eminent, and experienced in the Study and Practice of Physic, together with Persons most capable, from their Knowledge of the Ports of Our Kingdoms, to afford Assistance in the forming of Regulations respectively applicable to the local Circumstances of the said Ports; such Board to be authorized and directed to prepare and digest the best Rules and Regulations for the speedy and effectual Adoption of the most approved Methods of guarding against the Introduction and spreading of Infection, and for purifying any Ship or House, or any Place in which any contagious Disorder may have manifested itself, and to communicate the same to all Magistrates, Medical Persons, and others of Our loving Subjects, who may be desirous, and may apply to be made acquainted therewith; and We most strictly enjoin and command all Magistrates and Persons in Authority, all Medical Persons, and others Our loving Subjects, especially those within the Maritime Counties, to give immediate Notice to Us, through Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or Our Privy Council, in case any Person or Persons should be attacked with any Fever, attended with new and uncommon Symptoms, such as to afford Ground for Apprehension that such Fever is of the same Nature as the Disorder prevailing in several Parts of Spain, and in Gibraltar, in order that the most immediate and effectual Measures may be taken, as well for affording due and necessary Assistance and Relief to those afflicted with the same, as for preventing the Contagion from spreading amongst Our loving Subjects.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixth Day of February, One thousand eight hundred and five, and in the Forty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

SIR,

YOU will herewith receive, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter from the Honorable F. F. Gardner, stating the Capture of the French Brig Privateer Regulus, commanded by Jacque Mathieu.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

SIR, Princess Charlotte, December 13, 1804.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that at Ten A. M. Cape Antonio, East Four Leagues, made all Sail in Chace of a Brig; and after a hard Chace of Seven Hours, with a fresh Breeze, came up with her in Lat. 20 Deg. 50 Min. N. Long. 85 Deg. 32 Min. W. having steered South the Whole of the Chace, and firing Four or Five Shot at her she struck, and proves to be the French Privateer Brig Regulus, from Guadaloupe, commanded by Citizen Jacque Mathieu, pierced for Fourteen Guns, but only Eleven mounted, (having thrown Two overboard, with her Boats and Spars in the Chace,) and Eighty-four Men. Whitehall, March 14, 1805.

THE following Intelligence has been received at the East India House:

AFTER the Capture of Hinglaiz-Ghur by the Detachment under the Command of the Honorable Lieutenant-Colonel Monson, as stated in the Calcutta Gazette of the 26th of July, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson advanced his Position about Fifty Miles from the Mokundra Pass, in which Position he was informed that he would be able to procure Supplies. Colonel Monson also expected to be able to communicate with Colonel Murray, at that Time on his March, with a considerable Detachment of Troops, from Guzerat towards Onjein.

The Corps under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson consisted of Five Battalions of Sepoys, with a Proportion of Artillery, and of Two Bodies of irregular Horse, under the Command of Lieutenant Lucan, and of a Native Chieftain, named Bapjee Scindiah, amounting to about Three Thousand Men.

On the 7th of July 1804, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson received Intelligence that Jeswunt Rao Holkar, (who, since his Retreat before the Army of the Commander in Chief, had occupied a Position in Malwa, having the Chumbul River between him and Colonel Monson's Corps,) had crossed the Chumbul River with the Whole of his Army and Guns. Lieutenant Colonel Monson was desirous of attacking Jeswunt Rao Holkar, and moved towards the Place at which it was stated that Jeswunt Rao Holkar had crossed the Chumbul River. Colonel Monson however states that he had only Two Days Grain in his Camp; that Part of his Corps had been detached to bring up Grain; that One Battalion of his Force was on its March to join him from Hinglaiz-Ghur; that he expected to be joined by an Escort with Treasure, for the Use of his Detachment; and that he had also received Accounts from Colonel Murray, of that Officer's Intention to fall back on the Myhie River. Under these Circumstances, and adverting to the large Body of Cavalry which was stated to be with Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Army, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson determined to retire to the Mokundra Pass.

Accordingly the Whole of the Baggage and Stores belonging to Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's

Detachment was sent off at Four A.M. on the Morning of the 8th of July 1804, to Sonara; and Lieutenant-Colonel Monson remained on the Ground of Encampment till half-past Nine, with his Detachment formed in Order of Battle. At this Period of Time, no Enemy having appeared, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson commenced his March, leaving Lieutenant Lucan and Bapjee Scindiah, with the irregular Cavalry, on the Ground, with Orders to follow in Half an Hour, and to send Lieutenant-Colonel Monson the earliest Intelligence of Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Motions.

The Detachment had marched nearly Six Coss, when Lieutenant-Colonel Monson received Intelligence that Lieutenant Lucan's Party had been attacked at a considerable Distance in his Rear by the Whole of Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Cavalry. Lieut. Colonel Monson states that he immediately ordered the Troops to form, for the Purpose of supporting Lieutenant Lucan, and was on his March towards Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Army when Bapjee Scindiah joined him, and informed Lieutenant-Colonel Monson that the Rear Guard had been defeated, that many Sirdars had been either killed or wounded, and that Lieutenant Lucan, with several Sirdars, were taken Prisoners. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson therefore continued his March to Sonara, where his Baggage had arrived in Safety; the Baggage moved again at Eleven at Night on the 8th; and at Four in the Morning of the 9th of July the Detachment prosecuted its March to the Mokundra Pass, which it reached at Noon on the same Day, without having been molested by the Enemy.

On the Morning of the 10th of July, a large Body of the Enemy's Cavalry made their Appearance, and continued to increase in Numbers until Noon next Day, when Jeswunt Rao Holkar sent a Letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Monson, requiring the Surrender of the Guns and Small Arms of the British Detachment. This Demand being rejected with becoming Spirit, Jeswunt Rao Holkar divided his Force into three Bodies, and made a vigorous Attack on the Front and Flanks of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Corps. Owing, however, to the judicious Position occupied by Lieutenant-Colonel Monson, and to the Bravery and Steadiness displayed by the Troops under his Command, Jeswunt Rao Holkar could not make any Impression on Lieutenant-Colo-zel Monson's Detachment; and after various unsuccessful Attacks which continued until Evening, Jeswunt Rao Holkar drew off his Troops, to a Position Two Cofs from Lieutenant Colonel Monson's Corps, where he was joined by his Infantry and Guns, and, where he encamped, with the Intention, it is stated, of attacking Lieutenant Colonel Monson the following Morning.

Lieutenant-Colonel Monson states, that he was apprehensive the Enemy might pass his Rear, and thus cut off his Communication with the Mokundra Pass, and with the Town of Kotah, which was the only Place, at that Period of Time, from which he could expect to derive any Supplies. Adverting also to the circumscribed Nature of his own Position, to the supposed Strength of Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Force, and to the supposed Weight and Number of Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Guns, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson did not consider his Post at Mokundra, to be tenable, and accordingly resolved to retire to Kotah, which Place he reached on the 12th of July in the Morning, after two Marches. The whole Detachment experienced great Fatigue, owing to the Season of the Year, and to the State of the Country. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson reports the Conduct of all the Troops to have been extremely meritorious, and, on the 11th of July, to have been distinguished by particular Gallantry and Firmness. The Loss sustained in the Affair at the Mokundra Pass was inconsiderable; and is stated in the Official Return, annexed to this Gazette.

The Rajah of Kotah was unwilling to admit Lieutenant Colonel Monson into the Town, and stated, that he could not furnish Lieutenant-Colonel Monson with any Provisions. As the Troops began to experience severe Distress for Want of a proper Supply of Food, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson continued his March to the Gaumus Nuddee Ghaut. The Rains had set in with Violence on the 10th of July, and about this Period of Time became incessant. Although the Gaumus Nuddee is only Seven Miles distant from Kotah, the Obstructions occasioned by the Rains, and the Nature of the Soil, prevented Lieutenant-Colonel Monson from reaching the Gaumus Rivulet until the Morning of the 13th of July.

The Rivulet was not fordable on the 13th, and Lieutenant-Colonel Monson halted on the 14th to enable the Troops to procure a Supply of Grain from a Village called Tuttun, distant about two Cofs.

On the 15th of July Lieutenant-Colonel Monson continued his March, but the Rains were so violent that it was impossible to move the Guns; Lieutenant-Colonel Monson therefore halted. It rained during the Whole of the Night of the 15th, and on the Morning of the 16th July, the Guns had sunk so deep into the Mud, that it was impracticable, with every Degree of Exertion, to extricate them. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson states, that he had no Provisions in Camp, and that all the neighbouring Villages were exhausted. The small Supply obtained from the Village of Pattun was also expended. Under these Circumstances, Lieutenant Colonel Monson was induced to spike his Guns, and to order the Ammunition to be destroyed; at the same Time he wrote to the Rajah of Boondec, desiring him to send some People to extricate the Guns, and to deposit them in a Place of Security.

As soon as these Measures were completed, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson prosecuted his March, and reached the Cambulee Rivulet on the 17th of July, having passed a Country so completely overflowed, that it was with the utmost Difficulty the Troops could march. The Rivulet was not fordable on the 17th, but on the 18th of July, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson was enabled to cross over the European Artillery-men on Elephants, and to send them on to Rampoorah.

On the 19th of July, the Rivulet continued to rise. The Troops were in the greatest Distress for Food, when Lieutenant Colonel Monson heard that there was some Grain in a Village at a few Miles Distance. A strong Party with Arms, and an equal Number without Arms, were accordingly detached from each Corps of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Detachment, together with all the Camp Followers. This Party returned the next Morning (20th July) with a sufficient Quantity of Grain for the Use of the Detachment for Two Days. On their Return to Camp, the Party was attacked by a Body of the Enemy's Horse, who were, however, repulsed. A few Sepoys were wounded in this Affair.

In the Evening of the 21st July, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson detached Captain O'Donnell with the Flank Companies belonging to the Corps of his Detachment, to beat up a Body of Cavalry encamped at some Distance. Capt O'Donnell was completely successful. The Enemy's Camp was destroyed, and Captain O'Donnell captured some Camels, and Two hundred Horse. The Enemy's Loss was considerable in this Affair.

On the 23d of July, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson having procured a few Rafts, crossed over the 2d Battalion of the 21st Regiment, and on the 24th, the 2d Battalion of the 12th Regiment. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson also sent Lieutenant-Colonel Don with the 2d Battalion of the 8th Regiment, to a Ford, a few Miles lower down the Rivulet, with a View to expedite the Passage of the Detachment. During the 24th of July, a large Body of the Enemy's Cavalry made their Appearance. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson immediately drew up the Remainder of his Detachment, amounting to about Seven hundred Men, and maintained a Contest with the Enemy until Sun-set, when the Enemy retired with the Loss of several Men and Horses. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson had about Twenty Men killed and wounded.

On the Morning of the 25th July, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson ordered the 2d Battalion 21st Regiment to proceed through the Lackeree Pass, and to take up a Position near the Entrance towards Rampoorah. The 2d Battalion of the 2d Regiment crossed the River on the Morning of the 25th, and Lieutenant-Colonel Monson having sent the 1st Battalion of the 12th Regiment to join Lieutenant-Colonel Don, and having no Provisions in Camp, moved on the Morning of the 26th July, with the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment and the 2d Battalion 12th Regiment, towards Rampoorah, which he reached on the 27th. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson immediately adopted Measures for supplying the Two remaining Corps, (the 2d Battalion 8th Regiment, and the 1st Battalion 12th Regiment) under Lieutenant-Colonel Don, with Provisions, and Lieutenant-Colonel Don joined him at Rampoorah on the 29th of July. Some Men belonging to Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Detachment were drowned in crossing the Chumbulee Rivulet; and in the March to Rampoorah, (from the Nullah through the Lackeree Pass,) the different Corps were attacked by the Hill People, and by Banditti, who however were always repulsed with Vigour and Success. The 2d Battalion of the 8th Regiment had several Men killed and wounded, and among the latter, Lieutenant Simons, of the Honourable Company's Service.

On his Arrival at Rampoorah, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson was joined by Two Battalions of Sepoys, with Four Six Pounders and Two Howitzers, and a Body of Hindostanee Cavalry, under Major Frith, together with a Supply of Grain, which had been sent from Agra by the Commander in Chief as soon as His Excellency heard of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Situation at the Mokundra Pass. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson also adopted Measures for collecting a Supply of Grain; but the Supply which he was enabled to procure was inconsiderable, and Jeswunt Rao Holkar having advanced in considerable Force, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson determined to prosecute his Retreat to Khooshal Ghur, where he expected to be joined by Six Battalions and Twenty-one Guns, under the Command of a Native Commander, named Sadasheo Bhow Bukhee, in the Service of Dowlut Rao Scindiah, and where he was also in Hopes he could obtain a sufficient Supply of Provisions to enable him to keep the Field against Jeswunt Rao Holkar. Previously to quitting Rampoorah Lieutenant-Colonel Monson made necessary Arrangements for its Security. A Garrison was left in the Fort of Rampoorah under the Command of Captain Hutchinson, of the Bengal Artillery, consisting of the 2d Battalion 8th Regiment, and Four Companies of the 21st Regiment, with Four Six-Pounders, and a large Stock of Provisions.

The Remainder of Colonel Monson's Detachment, consisting of Five Battalions and Six Companies of Sepoys*, with Two Howitzers, reached the Bannas River about Daybreak on the Morning of the 22d August 1801. The River had risen in consequence of a heavy Fall of Rain, and was so high as to be scarcely fordable for the largest Elephants.

Three Boats were found at the Bannas River, and Lieutenant-Colonel Monson perceiving that the River did not fall so rapidly as might be expected, ordered Captain Nicholl, with the Six Companies of the 2d Battalion 21st Regiment, to cross the River, and to proceed to Khooshal-Ghur, in Charge of the Treasure of the Detachment.

Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Cavalry appeared in large Bodies, in Front of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Detachment, on the Morning of the 23d August, 1804, and pitched their Camp about Four Miles from Lieutenant-Colonel Monson. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson, however, states that the Encampment was so irregular, as to render it impossible to attack the Enemy's Cavalry with any Prospect of Advantage.

On the Morning of the 24th August, the River having been found fordable, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson began to cross over the Baggage, at Eight A. M. together with One Battalion. At the same Time the Enemy took Possession of a large Village on Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Right, but Lieutenant-Colonel Monson attacked this Post, and carried it with the Loss of a few Men. The Fall of the River having rendered it fordable in many Places, the Enemy availed themselves of this Circumstance, and their Cavalry began to cross in great Numbers, at different Places, to the Right and Left of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Position. The greater Part of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Baggage had crossed, and Lieutenant-Colonel Monson sent over Three more Battalions, and One Howitzer for its Protection, intending to follow with the remaining Corps, (the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment, and the Picquets of the Four Corps which had crossed,) as soon as the Remainder of the Baggage and the Camp Followers had effected that Passage over the River.

At Four P. M. however, the Enemy's Infantry and Guns arrived, and opened a heavy Cannonade on the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment, and the Picquets posted on the South Side of the Bannas River. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson immediately charged the Enemy with his small Body of Men, and succeeded in carrying some Guns. The Enemy, however, encouraged by their Superiority of Numbers, rallied, and advancing with great Celerity in different Directions, the Picquets, and the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment, were overpowered, and compelled to retire, and to abandon the remaining Howitzer. Our Troops suffered very severely in this Operation, and with Difficulty effected a Retreat, under Cover of the 1st Battalion 4th Regiment, who advanced to the Banks of the River for that Purpose.

The Enemy prosecuted the Advantage which they had obtained, and Lieutenant-Colonel Monson was compelled to abandon his Baggage, and continue his Retreat to Khooshal-Ghur, which he reached on the Night of the 25th August. During the March to Khooshal-Ghur, the Enemy's Cavalry, supported by Guns, made several Attacks on Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Detachment, but without Success. At Khooshal-Ghur Lieutenant-Colonel Monson found Captain Nicholl, who arrived in the Vicinity of the Fort of Khooshal-Ghur on the 24th of August. Captain Nicholl's Picquets were attacked on the Night of the 24th by Parties of Horsemen, but maintained their Post until the Morning of the 25th, when they were recalled, and Captain Nicholl moved into the Fort of Khooshal-Ghur with the Whole of his Detachment, strengthened by a Company from the 12th Regiment Native Infantry, which had been stationed at Khooshal-Ghur for some Days. Captain Nicholl states that there were several Gates and Openings into the Fort of Khooshal-Ghur, which belongs to the Rajah of Jeypoor; and that on the Morning of the 25th of August he was apprised that it was the Intention of the Troops under Sadasheo Bhow to levy a Contribution upon the Town of Khooshal-Ghur. This Information, Captain Nicholl further adds, was accompanied by a Threat, that if, in Two Hours, a certain Sum of Money was not paid to the Mahratta Troops they would cannonade the Town.

Captain Nicholl then declared his Intention of protecting the Town, and received a Letter from the Mahratta Commander, requiring the Surrender of the Elephants, Treasure, &c. belonging to the British Detachment. To this demand Captain Nicholl made no Reply, and at Nine o'Clock in the

* 2d Battalion 2d Regiment, 1st Battalion 9th Regiment, 1st Battalion 13th Regiment, 12th Regiment (Two Battalions), and Six Companies of the 21st Regiment, with Two Howitzers.

Morning of the 25th August, the Enemy opened some Guns on the Town. At Five o'Clock in the Evening of the same Day, Captain Nicholl reports, that the Enemy made an Attack upon the Town with their Infantry, but were quickly repulsed with the Loss of several Men. Captain Nicholl had Two Sepoys killed in this Affair.

On the Morning of the 26th August, the Whole of the Enemy's Cavalry encamped in separate Bodies, surrounding Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Detachment. A Correspondence was at this Period detected, between some of the Native Officers of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson's Corps, and Jeswant Rao Holkar. The most vigorous and effectual Steps appear to have been immediately adopted to check this Mischief; but notwithstanding every Effort on the Part of Lieutenant-Colonel Monson and his Officers, nearly Two Companies from the 11th Battalion 14th Regiment, and a large Proportion of the Hindoostanee Cavalry deserted.

On the 26th August, at Seven P. M. Lieutenant-Colonel Monson moved from the Fort of Koo-shal-Ghur, and formed an oblong Square, having previously spiked the remaining Howitzer.

During the Night of the 26th August, and the greater Part of the 27th, the Enemy's Cavalry supported, as before, by some Guns, attempted several Times to penetrate the Detachment under Lieutenant-Colonel Monson, but could not make the least Impression on this compact Body of Men. On the Night of the 27th of August, Lieutenant-Colonel Monson took Possession of the ruined Fort of Hindown, and at One A. M. on the 28th, continued his Retreat towards Agra. As soon as the Detachment had cleared the Ravines near Hindown, the Enemy's Cavalry made a desperate Charge in Three separate Bodies, but were received by the Sepoys with determined Coolness and Bravery. The Sepoys reserved their Fire, until the Enemy's Cavalry had come almost within Reach of the Bayonet, and then gave their Fire with such signal Effect, as to compel the Enemy to retire in every Direction.

Lieutenant-Colonel Monson reached the Biana Pass about Sun-set the 28th August. The Troops were almost exhausted with Fatigue and Hunger, and Lieutenant-Colonel Monson halted with an Intention to remain during the Night at the Entrance of the Pass. The Enemy, however, succeeded in bringing up some Guns, and opened a heavy Fire, which compelled Lieutenant-Colonel Monson to continue his Retreat to Agra. The Detachment reached the Town of Biana at Nine P. M. on the 28th August. The Night was dark; and the Camp Followers, with such Baggage as remained with the Detachment, having mixed with the Lines, the Troops were thrown into Confusion. It was impossible to restore Order, and the different Corps retreated in great Disorder to Agra, which they all reached by the 31st of August. The Enemy followed as far as Futty-poor, in dragging Parties, for the Purpose of plundering, but made no united Attack after the 28th.

The following Extract of a Letter from His Excellency the Commander in Chief to the Governor-General, under date 8th September 1804, is published for general Information:—

"Although I cannot sufficiently lament the unfortunate Turn Affairs have taken with this Detachment; or the Circumstances which led to them, still I feel it my Duty to represent to your Lordship, that both Officers and Men of the Detachment, on every Occasion in which they were actually engaged with the Enemy, maintained the Superiority of British Discipline, and shewed the utmost Steadiness and Gallantry; and that should an Opportunity occur of leading against the Enemy those who remain, I shall place the fullest Confidence in their Attachment and approved Bravery and Experience.

"I shall cause every possible Enquiry to be made into the apparent Disaffection on the Part of some of the Corps, but I have the Pleasure to assure your Lordship, that it does not appear to have been, by any Means, extensive. Numbers of the Sepoys are daily coming in; and those that are still with the Enemy, and have been obliged to take Service, have sent Word to their Officers, that they will avail themselves of the first Opportunity of escaping to return. Those who refused to enter the Enemy's Service, have been most cruelly treated, and in general mutilated in the Right Hand."

Heads of Intelligence from Rampoorah.

AT Nine A. M. on the 28th August, Captain Hutchinson, of the Bengal Artillery (who had been left in the Command of the Fort of Rampoorah), observed a Party of the Enemy marching in the Direction of Ooniara, and conceiving it to be possible to cut them off, ordered Lieutenant Robertson, with Three Companies of Sepoys, and some Golundauze, to attempt this Operation. Lieutenant Robertson succeeded in reaching the Enemy, who immediately opened a Fire upon him from Three Guns. The Enemy, however, were enabled to draw off their Artillery, but Lieutenant Robertson captured Five Tumbrils, and a Stand of Colours, and compelled the Enemy to retire, with the greatest Precipitation.

Official Intelligence has been received of the Capture, without any Loss on our Part, of Indore, the Capital of the Holkar Territories, by the Corps under the command of Colonel Murray, on the 24th of August, 1804. The Officer commanding Jeswunt Rao Holkar's Troops at Indore, retired without opposing any Resistance to Colonel Murray.

Extract of a Letter from Peter Rainier, Esq; Vice-Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the East Indies, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Trident, 18th October 1804.

ON the 17th. Monf. Linois had seized on some Country Boats off Masulipatam-Road, who gave him the Intelligence of His Majesty's Ship Wilhelmina having left that Road a few Days before for Vizagapatam Road, with the Princess Charlotte Indianman in Convoy, and accordingly he dashed into that Road in the Forenoon of the 18th, and commenced a furious Attack with the Marengo and Frigates on His Majesty's Ship the Centurion, (of Fifty Guns,) whom I had a few Days before sublituted for the Wilhelmina, having ordered the latter to proceed to Calcutta with the Bengal and Asia Indianman, who had some Treasure on board. For the Particulars of what followed I beg Leave to refer their Lordships to Captain James Lind's Letter of the 19th, whom I had given an acting Order to command that Ship in the Absence of Captain J. S. Rainier, left dangerously ill at Sick Quarters.

The gallant and spirited Conduct displayed by Captain Lind, his Officers and Crew, in the Defence of His Majesty's Ship Centurion against so great a Superiority of Force, under every Advantage on the Part of the Assailants, with the complete Defeat given the French Admiral and Squadron in the Conclusion, merits every Encomium, and I trust will be honored with their Lordships' fullest Approbation. For my own Part I do not hesitate to rank this brilliant Action with the most famous of the defensive Kind recorded in the glorious Annals of the British Navy.

His Majesty's Ship Centurion, in Vizagapatam-Road, 19th Sept. 1804.

SIR,
YESTERDAY Morning, whilst at Anchor in this Roadstead, and waiting till the Indianman, the Princess Charlotte, and the Country Ship the Barnaby, the Two Ships you directed me to convoy to Madras, were loaded, Three Ships were perceived under the Land in the South West, coming down before the Wind, with all Sail set. About half-past Nine A. M. it was seen that the strange Ships were Enemies, and were a Line of Battle Ship and Two Frigates; the Line of Battle Ship hoisted, with her Colours, a Flag at the Mizzen Topmast-Head, and I believe was the Marengo, Admiral Linois, and I shall so call her in this Letter. The Frigate appeared to be of Thirty-six or Forty Guns. For the Information of the Convoy the Signal of an Enemy being in Sight was hoisted, and soon afterwards one for the Convoy, as they were held able to put into a Port in View. This was done that the Two Ships that we had taken under Convoy might get close in Shore for Protection, or, if necessary, to be run on it: The Barnaby complied with this Signal; she ran in Shore, but unfortunately afterwards got into the Surf, and was totally lost.

About Ten A. M. the headmost of the Enemy's Ships, a Frigate, was about Half a Mile from the Centurion, without any Colours flying. Several Shot were fired at her. About the same Time the Cable was cut, and Topmasts sheeted home, which were already loose for the Purpose; by this Means the Broadside was brought to bear upon the Enemy, and prevented the Ship being boarded or raked; by this Manœuvre, likewise, a Frigate, that was within a Cable's Length of the Centurion, and appeared to have an Intention to board, got a close and well-directed Broadside into her: the Action soon became general; the Three Enemy's Ships directing their Fire on the Centurion, their only Object, for the Princess Charlotte Indianman had very early struck her Colours. The Centurion stood in Shore, the Marengo and One Frigate on the Starboard Quarter, the other Frigate on the Larboard; they were all less than Half a Mile distant, and kept firing, which the Centurion returned. Her Fire was chiefly directed against the Marengo. About a Quarter before Eleven the French Ships stood to Sea; and immediately after this I got on board, though with much Difficulty and Danger. I had been on Shore to expedite the Sailing of the Convoy, and was not present in this early Part of the Action, for, till now, the Centurion had been under the Direction of Lieutenant James Robert Philips, the First Lieutenant; and, before I proceed any further in this Account, permit me to notice the judicious Conduct of this deserving and old Officer, and his gallant Defence of the Ship against so superior Force as that of the Enemy. I hope, Sir, his Conduct will be thought worthy of a Reward, and that he will be esteemed deserving of Promotion.

On my coming on board I found the Sails and Rigging so very much cut as to render the Ship not in a State to be worked, and therefore anchored at the Back of the Surf, about a Mile and a Half to the North East of the Town; this Situation was the best I had in my Power to take, both for Defence, and to prevent her falling into the Possession of the Enemy if overpowered.

A Battery of Three Guns at the Town, under the Command of Colonel Campbell, of His Majesty's 74th Regiment, had kept a Fire on the Enemy whilst within Reach in the Roadstead, but now we were too far distant to receive any Support from it. I sent on Shore to request Guns might be brought on the Beach nearer us; this was a Thing, I have been since convinced of, totally impracticable, or it would have been done. We prepared again for Action; and, whilst thus employed, the Enemy, in the Offing, wore and stood towards us; the Marengo, after having repeatedly tried the Range of her Guns, came to an Anchor abreast of us, and about a Mile distant; clewed up her Topsails, fuiled her Courses, and commenced cannonading. This threatening Appearance of being determined to persevere and to succeed only served to animate the Officers and Men of His Majesty's Ship to greater Exertions of Defence with the Lower Deck Guns, the only ones that would reach the Enemy, for she was too far distant for the Carronades, but all the Enemy's Shot reached us. In the mean Time one of the Frigates kept under Sail on our Quarter, and nearer than the Marengo, and annoyed us much by her Fire; the other Frigate carried off the Indianman from her Anchorage in the Road.

At a Quarter past One P. M. nearly two Hours after this cannonading had commenced, and which had been kept up with Vigour on both Sides, the Marengo cut her Cable, hoisted her Jib, and stood to Sea. By some of her last Shot our Cable was cut, and we made some Sail, and got further off Shore before we brought up with the Sheet Anchor. When the Marengo first made Sail I supposed she intended to make a short Stretch, tack, and renew the Action nearer, and made all necessary Preparation to receive her, but she, Frigates, and Prize Indianman, stood to Sea, and a little before Sunset bore up to the North-East, towards the Bottom of the Bay.

What Damage the Enemy has sustained, or from what Cause they declined further Contest with us I cannot tell.

After this full Account of the Transactions of the Day, I feel it a Duty incumbent on me not only to repeat the high Sense I have of Lieutenant Philips' Services, but likewise to inform you that the other Lieutenants of this Ship, Lieutenants David Pringle, Richard Coote, and William Fairbrother Carrol, displayed great Gallantry and Spirit on the Occasion; the last mentioned, Lieutenant Carrol, though a young Officer, has seen much Service, and as his Commission of Lieutenant is not yet confirmed by my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, may I request that you will be pleased to represent his great Merit, to induce their Lordships to do it. To the Zeal and Energy of Lieutenant Warring of the Marines, I am much indebted.

To insert any Thing in this Letter in praise of the Behaviour of the veteran and gallant Crew of His Majesty's Ship Centurion, must be needless to you, Sir, who are well acquainted with it, but I cannot refrain from saying that they displayed great Experience, and cool Courage, and the good Discipline of the Ship was conspicuous, and does great Credit to their proper Commander, Captain Rainier.

His Majesty's Ship has received considerable Damage in her Masts, Yards, and Rigging. The Fore-mast, Mizzen-mast, and Mainyard, are badly wounded, as well as several smaller Masts and Yards; several Shot remain in the Bottom between Wind and Water, one came through into the Gunner's Store-Room; but for your full Information of Particulars there accompanies this detailed Reports of Damages sustained in the Gunner's, Boatswain's, and Carpenter's Departments, as far as they have been yet ascertained. It is with Pleasure I acquaint you that very few Men, considering the long Action, have suffered, none were killed, and only nine wounded, one of them is since dead, the others are not in apparent Danger.

I have received all the Assistance that this Place could afford me from Colonel A. Campbell, of His Majesty's 74th Highland Regiment, Commanding Officer of the District, and from all the Company's Servants, both Civil and Military, at this Settlement.

I am, &c. (Signed) JAMES LIND.
Peter Rainier, &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Trident, Madras Road, Oct. 1, 1804.

I AM to acknowledge the Receipt of your Letter of the 19th ultimo, informing Particulars of your proceeding in Execution of my Orders, and of the very noble Defence you made in His Majesty's Ship Centurion, under your Command, in Vizagapatam Road the preceding Day, against the formidable Attack of so superior a Force of the Enemy, as described in your Letter, led on by the French Admiral, Linois, in the Marengo; the gallant and spirited Conduct displayed on this Occasion by yourself, Officers, and Crew, merits the highest Applause, wherein you not only saved His Majesty's Ship under your Command from falling into the Enemy's Hand, as well as from Shipwreck, by running her on Shore, as a very obvious Resource that offered to prevent it, but gave the French Rear-Admiral a complete Defeat.

I shall not fail to forward your Letter to the Secretary of the Admiralty, for their Lordships' Information by the present Opportunity, and have no Doubt but their Lordships will bestow on you some honorable Acknowledgment of their Approbation of your gallant Conduct.

I remain, &c. PETER RAINIER.
To James Lind, Esq. acting Captain of His Majesty's Ship Centurion.

Admiralty-Office, March 16, 1805.

THE following Letters and List containing Accounts of Captures made from the Enemy, have been transmitted to this Office by Vice-Admiral Rainier, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the East Indies :

His Majesty's Ship La Dedaigueuse, off Cochin, Dec. 14, 1803.

SIR, I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that I captured this Morning a small French Privateer (L'Espeigle) of four Guns, some small Arms, and Thirty-six Men; and commanded by Francois Dubois.

She sailed from the Mauritius on the 8th of November, and had not made a Capture.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Caroline, Bay of Bengal, Little Andaman, N. 79 Deg. 50 Min. E.

SIR, Twenty Leagues, Jan. 5, 1804.

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform you, this Morning at Two o'Clock we fell in with the French Privateer Brig, Les Freres Unis, of One Hundred and Forty Tons, pierced for Sixteen, but with only Eight Guns on board, and One Hundred and Thirty-four Men, Fifteen of whom are Officers, and Forty Soldiers from Bourdeaux, in July, and from Mauritius 11th November, on a Cruise, but had taken Nothing. It took us till near Six A. M. to close with and capture this Vessel, who sails fast, and made every Effort to get from us, firing all his Guns into us, and as we hailed, but (thank God) without hurting any one. They had one Man shot by our Musquetry, and, with ourselves, received much Injury to Boats, Booms, Rigging, &c. &c.

I am, &c. B. W. PAGE.

Vice Admiral Rainier, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship St. Fiorenzo, off Mount Dilly, 14th January 1804.

SIR, I HAVE great Pleasure in acquainting you, that the French National Vessel Passe par Tout, (a Chasse Marée,) was this Day at Noon captured by the Boats of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, without the Loss of a single Man, after a most determined Resistance, in which the Enemy lost Two Men killed, with the First and Second Captains, and Three others very dangerously wounded, the Captain, I fear, mortally, having a Ball through his Body. About Ten A. M. perceiving the Chace to have got her Sweeps out, and the Land Wind failing, I sent Three Boats in Pursuit; the Barge and small Cutter with Lieutenants Doyle and Beach (my First and Second Lieutenants,) being up first, most gallantly laid her on board in the Face of a very heavy Fire from Two Brass Six-Pounders, several Swivels, and repeated Volleys of Musketry, when in less than Two Minutes they laid down their Arms. Great Praise is due to my Officers and People employed on this Occasion; and I have not the least Doubt of their Success, had the Enemy been of a much greater Force. One of the Bargemen is wounded on the Back of his Hand by a Cutlass.

She proved to be the Passe par Tout, of Two Brass Six-Pounders and Six Brass Swivels, with Twenty-five Men.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Vice-Admiral Rainier.

JOS. BINGHAM.

His Majesty's Ship Caroline, between the Cocos Sir, and Preparis Islands, Feb. 4, 1804.

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform you that His Majesty's Ship under my Command has had the good Fortune to capture the French Privateer Ship La General de Caen, of Three Hundred and Sixty Tons, Twenty-two Guns, and Two Hundred Men, this Forenoon. This Ship fell to us by the superior sailing of the Caroline, both being under all possible Sail, going large, our Chace Guns holling her she struck. Came from the Isle of France, last from Mergui, is stored and victualled for Five Months, and had not made a Capture,

I am, &c.

Vice-Admiral Rainier, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Sheerness, off Point de Sir, Galle, 6th May 1804.

CRUISING here pursuant to your Directions, for the Protection of Trade in general, and of the Extra Indiaman the Glory in particular, I captured Yesterday the French Privateer Brig L'Alfred; she was commanded by Captain Crevel, mounts Fourteen Guns, carries Eighty Men; she left the Mauritius in December last, and the only Prizes she has made are the Brigs Friendship, on the 27th March, and Endeavour, on the 16th April, both from Madras to Prince of Wales's Island, and of little Value; she sails well, and is a remarkable fine Vessel.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES LIND.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Musgrave, Commander of the Kitty Private Ship of War, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Falmouth the 14th Instant.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords of the Admiralty, that on Sunday the 10th Instant, in the Latitude of 48 Deg. North, and Longitude 10 Deg. 15 Min. West, we fell in with the Spanish Private Ship of War Felicity, mounting Twenty Guns and One Hundred and Seventy Men, commanded by Jose Vincento de Cinza, out Ten Days from St. Andero, and after an Engagement of One Hour and a Half, she struck to the Kitty, Private Ship of War, of London, under my Command. I am concerned to add, that we had One Man killed and Two dangerously wounded. In Justice to the Officers and Ship's Company, I must say their Conduct deserves the Approbation of their Lordships, when you take into Consideration that not Twenty of them ever saw a Gun fired before, and not twice that Number ever were at Sea before we left the Downs, on the 3d Instant.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
